Mexican Embassy Ordered to "Make Representations" to State Department

By International News Service.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The Mexican embassy here has been instructed to "make appropriate representations" to the State Department and to request the immediate withdrawal of the "invading troops" of the Eighth Cavalry, it was learned this afternoon. No representations have yet been made.

The Mexican Foreign Office at Mexico City gave out this statement yesterday:

"Two aviators of the army of the United States through error, so they state, flew over our territory, landing approximately 112 kilometers to the south of the frontier, where they were captured by a band of twenty bandits. They have now been liberated.

"Some troops of the Eighth Cavalry of the United States crossed the frontier in pursuit of the outlaws. The Department of Foreign Relations has sent instructions to our embassy in Washington to make appropriate representations protesting and requesting the immediate withdrawal of the invading troops."

The federal convention of labor unions at Mexico City has issued a manifesto asking President Carranza to form a representative cabinet and "immediately to adjust difficulties with the United States," according to the Mexico City press.

A circular of the Liberal constitution party has been published, it was stated, calling on adherents throughout Mexico to "work for a good understanding "between the United States and Mexico, and a group of deputies of the Mexican congress will petition President Carranza to change his policy.

The Mexican Herald, editorially, said yesterday that the Mexican government is "showing disposition to change its policy" and urges it to "listen to public opinion, which is not in favor of war."

BEATS GASOLINE AT 15 CENTS A GALLON

New Invention Makes Fords Run 34 Miles on Gallon of Gasoline. Other Cars Show Proportionate Savings.

A new carburetor which cuts down the gasoline consumption of any motor, including the Ford, and reduces gasoline bills from one third to one-half is the proud achievement of the Air Friction Carburetor Co., 220 Madison St., Dayton, Ohio. This remarkable invention not only increases the power of all motors from 30 to 50 per cent, but enables everyone to run slow on high gear. With it you can use the very cheapest grade of gasoline or half gasoline and half kerosene and still get more power and more mileage than you now get from the highest test gasoline. Many Ford owners say they now get as high as 45 or 50 miles to a gallon of gasoline. So sure are the manufacturers of the immense saving their new carburetor will make that they offer to send it on 30 days' trial to every car owner. As it can be put on or taken off in a few minutes by anyone, all readers who want to try it should send their name, address and make of car to the manufacturers at once. They also want local agents, to whom they offer exceptionally large profits. Write them today.—Adv.

Ireland Demands Her Sovereign Right of Independence

ARTICLE NO. 5.

HOME RULE A DEAD ISSUE—IRELAND'S SELF-RESPECT DEMANDS INDEPENDENCE

By EDWARD F. McSWEENEY,

Member of the Advisory Committee of the Irish Victory Fund and National Officer Friends of Irish Freedom.

The two questions most frequently heard in connection with the Irish cause are: "Has not England offered Ireland Home Rule?" "Has not England recently done more for Ireland than it has for Scotland or Wales?" and the answer to both is "No." A weak Home Rule bill was passed in 1914, but at a threat of rebellion from Carson it was suspended, and Carson was rewarded by being made a member of the Cabinet.

As to what has been done for Ireland, it is easier to tell what has been done to her. A National Insurance act was applied to Ireland in 1911—if she had been a free nation it would have been in effect at least ten years previously—and the Wyndham Land Purchase act, about which so much is made, advanced the money needed for land purchase from the British Treasury, but the tenant farmer was obliged to repay in annuities the full amount of capital advanced; the cost to the British government will ultimately be repaid in full with interest. As for "gifts," it is the other way round. A British government commission in 1896 estimated the amount

ALL BUT 32,000 TROOPS HOME THIS MONTH

By International News Service.

Washington, Aug. 21.—To allay "considerable anxiety" on the part of the families of members of the American Expeditionary Forces still in France, the War Department announced today that it had been advised by General Pershing that all men enlisted for the emergency would be returned to the United States as soon as their services could be spared and transportation became available.

By September 1, it was estimated, there will be only 7,000 combatant troops and 25,000 troops in the service of supplies in Europe. The sick from every cause and men in confinement form a very small part of these troops, it was stated, and families of members of the American Expeditionary Forces were urged by the War Department "not to take seriously any statements to the contrary."

AUTOISTS FINED FOR SIGNALLING WRONGLY

In a crusade against autoists who fail to give proper signals at cross-streets, Morris N. Davidow of South Boston and Charles I. Goodman of Gloucester were each fined $5 by Judge Barnes in the East Boston Court today. More than 200 persons have been fined for similar offences since the Summer began.

ALLIED TROOPS MAY BE SENT TO SILESIA

Paris, Aug. 21.—With civil war raging in Upper Silesia, the allied and associated powers may be forced to send troops to occupy the region to restore order and safeguard the coal supply, it was reliably reported today.

As near as can be learned, a four-cornered fight is in progress in Upper Silesia, with the Germans, the Poles, the Spartacans and the fathers pitted against each other.

London, Aug. 21.—The Poles are calling all able bodied men between the ages of 20 and 40 to the colors because of the outbreak of fighting in Upper Silesia, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen today. Already there has been much bloodshed in Upper Silesia and the Germans are believed to have well organized plans for a revolution there.

WALSH FOR PROFITEER PUBLICITY

Demands Facts on Income Taxes of Corporations Dealing With Government

By International News Service.

Washington, Aug. 21. — Reiterating that profiteering is responsible for the high cost of living, Senator Walsh of Massachusetts this afternoon introduced in the Senate a measure which would require the President to lay before the Senate all information concerning income tax returns of corporations and individuals, and information concerning government contracts with firms that had interested parties employed by the government.

The resolution was offered as an amendment to the Owen resolution providing that a special committee of five be appointed by the Senate to investigate the high cost of living.

FERNALD DEFENDS PACKERS.

The organization of the big packers is the cheapest and most efficient method of supplying consumers with meat, and the Kenyon and Kendrick bills for government regulation of the packing industry would result in poorer service and higher costs to consumers, declared Senator Fernald of Maine in a speech today in a sweeping defence of the "Big Five" packers.

"I am unalterably opposed to these bills," Senator Fernald said. "I am not personally interested in any of the so-called big packers. I do not know a single one of them. But I am greatly interested in and deeply concerned about the success and welfare of American business men. I am a business man myself and I know how the business men of the country feel about this sort of legislation."

In denial that the packers have made extortionate profits and have thereby greatly increased the price of meat to the consumer, Senator Fernald said that the profits of the "Big Five" packers during the year ended November 2, 1918, amounted to $40,594,935 on an investment of $711,187,204, and that their percentage of profit on their investment was only 5.6.

PROFITS OF 1.6 PER CENT.

"The sales of the 'Big Five' during this period aggregated $2,434,113,430, and their profit on sales was only 1.6 per cent," he declared. His figures were based on a report of the food administration, the Senator said.

"Is there any other business of like size and investment in this country that shows so small a percentage of profits allowed on the investment or on sales as does the five large meat packers of the country?" he inquired.

"These figures cover the operation in the slaughtering of live animals and the distribution of meat and by-products therefrom."

Two Tall Giraffes on Their Way to Boston

Molly, Waddy and Tony, the Franklin Park elephants, are going to have a couple of playmates in the shape of two tall and stately giraffes. The giraffes are en route to Boston from Africa.

Chairman James B. Shea of the Park and Recreation Department has asked Mayor Peters for an appropriation of $2,000 to make changes in the elephant house in order that the giraffes may be properly housed. The appropriation is asked from the income of the Parkman fund.

Chairman Shea also asks $1,500 for puma dens, $1,500 for wild cat dens, $2,000 for a prairie dog village, $6,500 for dens for wolves, coyotes, red foxes and Eskimo dogs, $2,000 for purchase of birds and fish, $5,000 for drainage and water supply for various exhibits, and $1,000 for extension of walks to the exhibits now planned, a total of $25,000.

WILSON WOULD STAND FIRMLY BY ALLIES

Answering Fall, President Says He Has No Power to Proclaim Peace With Germany

By International News Service.

Washington, Aug. 21.—President Wilson has not the power to declare by proclamation that a state of peace exists between the United States and Germany before the treaty has been ratified, he stated today in answering the first of the twenty questions submitted to him in writing by Senator Fall of New Mexico at the White House conference Tuesday.

To "abandon our associates in the war in the settlement of the terms of peace," the President asserted in his answer, would put "a stain upon our national honor, which we could never efface."

The President also expressed the belief that the immediate ratification of the treaty would reduce the cost of living in this country and elsewhere.

"I feel constrained," the President wrote, "to say in reply to your first question not only that in my judgment I have not the power by proclamation to declare that peace exists, but that I could in no circumstances consent to take such a course prior to the ratification of a formal treaty of peace.

"I feel it due to perfect frankness to say that it would in my opinion put a stain upon our national honor which we never could efface if after sending our men to the battlefield to fight the common cause, we should abandon our associates in the war in the settlement of the terms of peace and dissociate ourselves from all responsibility with regard to those terms.

"I respectfully suggest that having said this, I have in effect answered also your second, third and fourth

PRINCE TO OPEN BRIDGE AT QUEBEC TOMORROW

Quebec, Aug. 21.—A distinguished array of officials, including the Duke of Devonshire, Governor-General of Canada; Premier Borden and Cardinal Begin, Lord Bishop of Quebec, will greet the Prince of Wales upon his arrival here on the British warship Renown this evening. The Prince will formally open the new Quebec bridge tomorrow.

FIND EGGS HELD LONG TIME

Officials Prepare to Seize 60,000 Dozen in Cold Storage; Jury Probe Near Close

Federal officials today prepared to seize 60,000 dozen eggs at Concord, N. H., it became known, in connection with the probe of the food situation conducted by a special Federal Grand Jury. The eggs are said to have been in cold storage for a long time.

They were discovered by local Department of Justice officials, who today were only waiting for a writ to be issued authorizing the seizure. Some delay was caused by the absence of the clerk on vacation.

The special Federal Grand Jury will end its investigation tomorrow. Its work will have extended over four days.

Today was given over largely to an inquiry into dairy products. Many prominent dealers were called to testify as to the amount of goods they had on hand, their customary stores in normal times and the extent of their business.

One of the first witness to be called was an executive of H. P. Hood & Sons. Most of the examinations were brief. The jury planned to take up the subject of coffee later in the day.

Tomorrow the jury will take up the probe of flour and potatoes. Officials said today that following the seizure last Saturday of eleven carloads of flour at the establishment of the Mar[illegible]t Warehouse Company, South Boston, it was believed that large quantities of this commodity had been hoarded in this city.

Fresh meat will not come under the present jury's investigation. The Department of Justice is working up on that subject at the packing centres, where officials believe the truble chiefly lies, and will submit its report to local agents, who will subsequently check it up with local dealers.

ROXBURY BOYS HELD AS ALLEGED BURGLARS

Two Roxbury boys were arraigned today, charged with breaking and entering in the night time. Peter Burke, sixteen, of Dell avenue, was found guilty in the Roxbury Juvenile Court and was sentenced by Judge Hayden to Concord Reformatory. He appealed and was held in $2,500. David Cameron, his alleged pal, who lives on Heath avenue, was held in $2,500 for the Grand Jury. The boys were caught in the apartment of Carl Stock, No. 652 Huntington avenue, last Sunday morning.

SELL $10,000 WORTH OF FOODS IN CAMBRIDGE

The sale of army food was resumed in Cambridge today, more than $10,000 worth being disposed of in seven school basements and the City Hall. Deviating from the usual custom, the public were permitted to purchase in case lots, $1,200 being taken in this way at City Hall alone. Joseph L. Johnson, who is in charge of these sales, announced he would purchase more food to go on sale next Wednesday and Thursday.

Food Prices to Drop Because Exports Decline

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—The high cost of food is due for a drop within a few days, Chicago exporters of foodstuffs declare, as a result of an 80 per cent. decline in foodstuff exports during the last ten days.

The falling off in exports, exporters say, was due principally to the inability of England to pay the current prices, owing to the decline of the British pound sterling from $4.86 to $4.12. France, the exporters say, is understood to be overstocked and is not buying at present.

The availability to American markets of this large amount of food usually exported will bring about a sharp reduction of prices in this country, the exporters say.

HEARING ON ARMY THEFTS AT NEWPORT

Newport, Aug. 21.—A hearing was given four civilians, charged with being connected with recent robberies at Fort Adams, by United States Commissioner Moore in the civil service room at the Federal building. The United States district attorney appeared for the government and Frank F. Nolan and Mortimer A. Sullivan for the defendants. Privates White and Gettings, said to have confessed to stealing the goods, and Chief of Police Tobin, who recovered them, were the government witnesses.

JAPAN READY TO LAY NEW PACIFIC CABLE

San Francisco, Aug. 21.—Japan is ready to lay a new trans-Pacific cable. This is the message brought here by Kakichi Uchida, capitalist and former vice-minister of cables of Japan, who is here to inform American capital of his plans.

Uchida says that 50,000,000 yen for such a purpose was subscribed in Japan in a few moments just before his departure.

TEST CASE PLANNED BY CURTIS

Trial to Be Called Next Week; Relieves Immediate Danger of Strike

There will be no strike of policemen until the middle of next week at the earliest. This was indicated following the visit to Superintendent Crowley today of Patrolmen Wills and Burke, officers of the newly formed union.

These men, together with the other major officers of the union, will face a departmental trial board on Tuesday next to answer to the charge of "Joining and maintaining a union in violation of rule 35, section 9, of the rules and regulations of the department."

This important development followed a conference between the two officers and the uniformed head of the department. At the same time Commissioner Curtis was conferring with the captains of the various stations.

INFORMED OF TRIALS.

Wills and Burke, who were due to start their vacations today, were ordered from headquarters to delay starting them and to report to the superintendent. At the latter's office they were told of the impending trials. They also were told that the order to delay their vacations came as a result of the desire of the department to occasion them no inconvenience.

It was made clear to them that it was thought better to have them in Boston rather than to have them go huahua, claiming that some of the American press has been insisting that the Mexican authorities show no interest or activity in checking the movement of bandits, has written letters to Americans and foreigners in Chihuahua asking their views concerning the efforts of the authorities to protect American and other foreign interests. It was also learned that

The American embassy at Mexico City, the State Department announced today, has reported that according to the Mexican Foreign Office, there is nothing new to communicate with respect to the case of Dr. Aguinaga, a native of Porto Rico, reported to be held for ransom by Mexican bandits in the Ajusco Mountains, near Mexico City.

U. S. and Carranzista Troops Hunt Separately for Mexican Bandits

By International News Service.

San Antonio, Tex., Aug. 21.—American cavalrymen who crossed into Mexico to run down the bandits who held two American army aviators for ransom were still advancing through the Sierra Madre Mountains at latest reports this afternoon.

It is now known positively that Carranzista troops have joined the manhunt, although they are not cooperating with the Americans. A column of Carranzista troops was sent down the Conchos Valley by General Prunada, commandant of the garrison at Ojinaga, to search the hills for the band under Jesus Renteria.

As none of the Mexican officers would consent to accompany the Americans, Major-General Dickman, commander of the Southern Department, U. S. A., arranged for the two forces to keep in communication by airplane. Officials here refuse to comment upon late reports from Mexico City that the Carranzista government is antagonistic to the invasion of Mexican soil by the Americans.

At the same time fear has been expressed that Francisco Villa, "king of the Mexican brigands," might take advantage of the present opportunity to become active again.

ONE BANDIT KILLED.

Whether there have been any actual battles between the Americans and the Mexican bandits has not been revealed, but there has been at least one skirmish.

One bandit has been killed so far, possibly a second killed, and two more have been captured alive and are being held at the "front" by the United States cavalry. The first guerrilla killed fell a victim to machine gun bullets from an airplane. The two captives have not been identified in dispatches, but both are said to be outlaws attached to the band that held the two army aviators.

Fresh supplies are being sent across the border, indicating that the search is in full swing and that there is yet no thought of turning back. The conveyance of these supplies, as well as the advance of the soldiers, has been made difficult by swollen streams and muddy trails resulting from heavy rains.

AIRMEN ARE HAMPERED.

The airmen are being hampered by bad weather and the roughness of the mountain country through which the troops are passing, but they are managing to keep up unbroken communication between the advanced posts and the border.

General Dickman is expected at Marfa, where he will receive first-hand reports from the air couriers as to what has already been done and the campaign plans of the immediate future.

Although the decision to go into Mexico and punish the marauding bandits was taken suddenly, the troops were not thrown over the international line until after the Mexican officials had been informed of the intentions of the military authorities, it developed today. The Mexican Consul at Presidio, Texas, was informed, and it was after conversations between this official and General Prunada that it was decided to send out Carranzista troops to join in the hunt.

Employment Bureau Finding Wife for Lonely Farmer

Pawtucket, R. I., Aug. 20.—Those in charge of the local division of the United States employment bureau are trying to figure out whether or not matchmaking for lonely farmers, in particular one from Seekonk, Mass., is included in their list of duties.

Since the appeal of the aforesaid agriculturist last Saturday for a spouse, Miss Mary B. Barry, in charge of the women's division of the employment bureau, has received fifteen applications from women who claim to be competent housekeepers and cooks.

Miss Barry is now attempting to arrange a meeting between the lonely farmer and two local women who are husbandless, the supposition being that the man from Seekonk will be given an opportunity to use his own judgement in the selection of his long-anticipated wife.

The radius covered by the fifteen applications is rather astonishing to the officials as communications have been received from all parts of New England. In some cases the writers are widows with children ranging from one month to three years old. Information regarding the gentleman from Seekonk was in general demand.

LABOR MEN CALL ON GOVERNR IN POLICE CASE

Present Views of A. F. of L. on the Police Union Affiliation

to New York or somewhere on a vacation, and then he summoned back. Just what else may have transpired during the time they were with the superintendent is not known.

The division commanders conferred with the commissioner for almost two hours. He made his departure just prior to 1 o'clock and then followed a conference between the captains and Superintendent Crowley. As yet it is not known what was said or done at either of these conferences.

CONFER WITH COOLIDGE.

Organized labor moved today in the police crisis. A delegation of union leaders, among them two members of the State Senate, conferred with Governor Coolidge in the interests of the policemen and their right to unionize.

And while this conference was going on, Commissioner Curtis was discussing the impending troubles with his various station commanders. Twenty captains and one lieutenant, William Allen, acting as captain of the City Hall avenue station, were with the commissioner for a considerable length of time, discussing the case in all its phases.

Just what the labor leaders plan to do as regards the approaching difficulties is not known. When they arrived at the State House they declined to discuss their visit. At the last meeting of the Central Labor Union, on Sunday, they were named to handle the police situation from an organization viewpoint.

CALL ON COOLIDGE.

The following labor leaders called on the Governor:

M. J. O'Donnell, president of the Central Labor Union; State Senator George E. Curran, representing the Theatrical Stage Hands; City Councillor James T. Moriarty, representing the Building Trades Union; P. H. Jennings, representing the Sheet Metal Workers; Charles Hodsdon of the Carmen's Union; Frank O'Hare of the Printing Trades Council; Thomas Gerraghty, vice-president of the Massachusetts Branch, A. F. of L.; Michael N. Birmingham of the Electrical Workers; James Burns of the Boston City Employes' Union; Senator John J. Kearney, representing the Hotel Employes' Union; Miss Mary E. June of the Boston Telephone Operators, and Miss May Matthews of the Telephone Operators' Department Union, the international organization.

NO STRIKE INTIMATION.

Following the conference, Governor Coolidge stated that the committee had come to explain the position of the American Federation of Labor in relation to having the policemen of Boston affiliated with them.

"No request was made by the committee for the removal of Police Commissioner Curtis and no intimation was made that in case policemen were discharged for joining the union there would be a sympathetic strike of labor organizations affiliated with the American Federation of Labor," the Governor stated.

"They came to tell me what the situation was, hoping that some way might be found to adjust it. They pointed out the patriotism of the American Federation of Labor and what it is doing for the workers."

"Did they state that a policeman might be affiliated with the American Federation of Labor without having it conflict with his duties?" the Governor was asked.

"They did not," he replied.

"Did you give them an opinion on that?"

"I did not. They did not ask for it."

President M. J. O'Donnell of the Central Labor Union refused to make any statement. He declined to say why the committee asked for the conference or what was discussed.

INSTALLED AMID CHEERS.

The union officials are John F. McInnes of the City Hall avenue station, president; John P. Whitten, Roxbury Crossing station, vice-president; Michael L. King, Dudley street station, financial secretary; William P. Wills, Roxbury Crossing station, recording and corresponding secretary; Edmund Burke, Back Bay station, treasurer; William Brown, Back Bay station, guide, and John Maloney, LaGrange street station, guardian, and the following delegates to the Central Labor Union: Stephen Dunleavy, Joy street station; John P. Whitten, Roxbury Crossing station; Philip Corbett, Dedham street station; Stephen Ryder, City Hall avenue station; James L. Butler, Morton street station; William P. Wills, Roxbury Crossing station; James G. Peters, Dorchester station; George E. Ferreira, Hanover street station, and Hugh Garrity, Back Bay station. Three trustees elected were James L. Butler, Morton street station; William P. Wills, Roxbury Crossing station, and James G. Peters, Dorchester station.

These patrolmen were installed in office at a wildly enthusiastic meeting at Fay Hall. President McInnes, who is also the head of the American Legion Post in the department, was borne in triumph to the chair on the shoulders of admirers, while 800 policemen cheered.

A subject of much speculation among the union men was the astounding rapidity with which matters that transpired behind closed doors in union meetings became known to the commissioner. Barely had the result of the balloting been determined, it is said, than the commissioner was dispatching messengers to the homes of the successful candidates with summonses to the "carpet."

WILSON REPLIES TO FALL'S 20 QUESTIONS

President Powerless to Proclaim Peace; Urges Treaty to Cut Living Cost

questions, so far as I myself am concerned.

THREE DON'T MAKE LEAGUE.

"Permit me to answer your fifth question by saying that the provisions of the treaty to which you refer operate merely to establish peace between the powers ratifying, and that it is questionable whether it can be said that the League of Nations is in any true sense created by the association of only three of the allied and associated governments.

"In reply to your sixth question I can only express the confident opinion that the immediate adoption of the treaty along with the articles of the covenant of the League as written would certainly within the near future reduce the cost of living in this country, as elsewhere, by restoring production and commerce to their normal strength and freedom.

"For your convenience, I will number the remaining paragraphs of this letter as the questions to which they are intended to reply are numbered.

"Seven—I have had no official information as to whether Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland or Switzerland will join the League.

"Eight—I answered your eighth question in reply to a question asked me at our conference the other day.

"Nine—In February, 1917, Spain was requested to take charge of American interests in Germany through her diplomatic and consular representatives and no other arrangement has since been made.

LEAGUE BOARD APPOINTED.

"Ten—The committee to prepare plans for the organization of the League, for the establishment of the seat of the League and for the proceedings of the first meeting of the Assembly, has been appointed but has not reported.

"Eleven—Article 118 of the peace treaty, Part IV, under which Germany renounces all her rights to territory formerly belonging to herself or to her allies was understood, so far as special provison was not made in the treaty itself for its disposition, as constituting the principal allied and associated powers' authority by which such disposition should ultimately be determined. It conveys no title to those powers, but merely entrusts the disposition of the territory in queston to their decision.

"Twelve—Germany's renunciation in favor of the principal allied and associated powers of her rights and titles to her overseas possession is meant similarly to operate a vesting in those powers a trusteeship with respect of their final disposition and government.

"Thirteen—There has been a provisional agreement as to the disposition of these overseas possessions whose confirmation and execution is dependent upon the approval of the League of Nations, and the United States is a party to that provisional agreement.

"Fourteen—The only agreement between France and Great Britain with regard to African territory of which I am cognizant concerns the redisposition of rights already possessed by those countries on that continent. The provisional agreement referred to in the preceding paragraph covers all the German overseas possessions in Africa as well as elsewhere.

SAAR BASIN SETTLEMENT.

"Fifteen—No mention was made in connection with the settlement of the Saar Basin of the service of an American member of the commission of five to be set up there.

"Sixteen—It was deemed wise that the United States should be represented by one member of the commission for setting the new frontier lines of Belgium and Germany because of the universal opinion that America's representative would add to the commission a useful element of entirely disinterested judgment.

"Seventeen—The choice of the commission for the Saar basin was left to the council of the League of Nations, because the Saar basin is, for fifteen years, to be directly under the care and direction of the League of Nations.

"Eighteen—Article 83 does not in effect provide that five of the members of the commission of seven to fix the boundaries between Poland and Czecho-Slovakia should be nominated by certain countries, because there are five principal allied and associated powers, and the nomination of one representative by each of those powers.

"Nineteen—No such commission has yet been appointed.

"Twenty—It was deemed wise that the United States should have a representative on the commission set up to exercise authority over the plebescite of upper Silesia for the same reason that I have given with regard to the commission for setting the frontier line of Belgium and Germany."

BAND CONCERTS PROVE SUBSTITUTE FOR BEACH

The East Boston Improvement Association has discovered a substitute for trips to Revere Beach—band concerts. It costs fifteen cents by trolley alone and seventeen cents by trolley and Narrow Gauge for some East Siders to visit the famous watering place, and the residents can't afford it, especially for family gatherings. But band concerts cost nothing and make them forget the beach.

So declares President Richard C. Kirby of the East Boston Association in announcing that the next concert is to be given by the Shipping Board Band, at Orient Hights, near the yacht club, next Friday evening. Captain Stewart, a veteran of the Boxer Rebellion, will lead the band, and Acting Mayor Francis J. W. Ford is expected to be among those present.

Twins Wed on Same Day Now Repent at Leisure

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 15.—Twin brothers, discharged soldiers, who were married the same day, have filed suits for divorce in Circuit Court here.

The twins are Edward and Ben Vander Pluym, of this city. They married in Springfield, Ill., June 11, 1917.

Edward asks a divorce from Margaret, from whom he separated in August, 1917, when he went into the army.

He asserts he sent her an allotment of $15 monthly, but that during his absence she posed as unmarried and went with other men.

Ben asks freedom from May, from whom he alleges he has been separated since June 18, 1917, when he entered the army. He charges she refused to go on the street with him while he was in uniform, that she had another sweetheart and declared she married him only to get his allotment and insurance if he was killed.

WOULD GIVE SHIPPING BOARD WIDER POWER

Washington, Aug. 21.—Authority to operate, lease, or sell ships constructed under the Emergency laws, and to form a corporation to issue bonds, is given the United States Shipping Board under a marine development act introduced in the Senate by Senator Jones of Washington.

All proceeds over 4 per cent. made by the board's operation would be used as a fund to stimulate the marine development of the United States.

MANCHESTER RAILWAY STRIKE CALLED OFF

Manchester, N. H., Aug. 21.—The proposed strike of the Manchester Street Railway men has been called off. A majority of the Board of Arbitrators in the case of the employes of the Manchester Traction, Light and Power Company, have made an award for motormen and conductors of forty-five cents per hour for the first three months, fifty cents per hour for the next nine months and fifty-five cents per hour thereafter.

LLOYD GEORGE'S TALK SCORED BY WALSH

Irish Question Ignored, Says Leader, Because Premier Didn't Know What to Say

New York, Aug. 21.—"The failure of Lloyd George to mention the Irish question in his speech before Parliament on Monday was in line with the spirit of his whole speech. It was not an exhibition of cynicism. He did not know what to say that would please his tory masters."

Frank P. Walsh, who was a member of the Irish-American commission at the peace conference and who with Edward F. Dunne of Chicago, another member of the commission, made a tour of Ireland to examine general conditions there, made this comment on the failure of the British Premier to advance any suggestion for solution of the Irish question despite the increasing unrest among the people of all sections, including Ulster.

"England and its government," added Mr. Walsh, "are sitting tight on the Irish question, hoping that America's demand for Irish independence will grow fainter with the passage of time. England with her back to the wall called on America for assistance in the late war and America gave it freely, with the understanding that Ireland and other small nations would have the right for self-determination, and England solemnly accepted our aid with that understanding as to the price.

"Demand for the payment of this price by England, namely, the absolute independence of Ireland, will not down, but grow louder and more insistent until the English army of occupation is withdrawn by the Lloyd George government or the one which I believe is soon to take its place."

6,000 EXECUTED ALONG DON BY BOLSHEVIKI

London, Aug. 21.—Nearly 6,000 persons were executed by the Russian Bolsheviki in the Don river region in southern Russia because they rebelled against the Reds, according to announcement by the War Office today. A broad strip of Russia from the Baltic to the Caucasus is being wrested from the Bolsheviki, the War Office announcement said.

Daughters Turn Out Father, Aged 81, It Is Charged

Lawrence, Aug. 21.—One of the most perplexing problems which has confronted the court in some time is the case of Giam Ettore, eighty-one years old, who, penniless, has been turned out by his two daughters and may become a public charge.

For the fifth time the case has come before the local district court and it was again continued until September 25.

Clarinda Paris, one of the daughters, was arraigned charged with neglect. It appears that the father eats at the homes of both his daughters when he can and sleeps where he can.

The Paris woman caused a sensation when she told the court that five of her daughters were sleeping in one bed while the father stayed at her home.

The court may issue an order for the old man's care. In commenting he said: "It is a lamentable case and both these daughters ought to be ashamed."

TAILOR IS FINED FOR KEEPING SOLDIER'S SUIT

Peter H. De Nolan, a tailor with a shop at Sixth and E streets, South Boston today was fined $20 for withholding a suit of clothes, the property of John Ridge, a former Yankee Division soldier, who lives at No. 226 Sixth street. Judge Logan, in the South Boston Court, imposed the fine.

Ridge was sent to Base Hospital No. 19 on Parker Hill as a patient, but before entering the hospital he left his suit with De Nolan to be cleaned and pressed. After two months Ridge applied for his suit, and De Nolan refused to surrender it.

FLYING STATION FOR WESTCHESTER POLO CLUB

Newport, Aug. 21.—The Curtiss Aeroplane Company, from its Boston branch, will shortly establish on the playfield of the Westchester Polo Club at Bateman's Point, a flying station, through the interest of T. Suffern Tailer of the board of governors of the club. The company will bring down from Boston a construction corps on Monday to erect a canvas hangar on the polo field. The Curtiss company proposes to establish at the grounds of the Westchester Polo Club a station for passengers desiring to fly to and from Boston.

GRAND DUKE NICHOLAS CALLED TO LEAD ARMY AGAINST LENINE

COUNCIL OF WAR PLANS TO MAKE RUSSIA SAFE

London, Aug. 21.—Like a ghost from the grave one of the most picturesque figures of the first three years of the war has again appeared upon the world stage, and looms today as the man who, with avenging sword, may revive war of the bitterest sort in the East, to put an end to Lenine's rule in Russia.

He is none other than the Grand Duke Nicolas Nicolaievitch, uncle of the late Czar. For more than two years, ever since he was sent to the Crimea by the Bolsheviki, he has been living in obscurity and hiding, during which time he has been many times reported killed.

Today comes a dispatch from Stockholm that he has arrived there from London, to take part in a great "war council" at which ,the finishing touches are to be put upon the plan for a concerted offensive on Petrograd.

It is the first hint that he has been here and it is presumed he came and went in disguise. How he escaped from the Crimea is a mystery. Recently he was reported at an obscure village near Genoa, Italy.

IDOL OF RUSSIANS.

A man of the Grand Duke's ambition and talents, it is generally agreed here, would accept no subordinate part in the grand-scale campaign being planned, but would unquestionably take the supreme command. He is still the idol of the Russian masses and his reappearance in Russia, with the battle cry of a savior, would rally hundreds of thousands of volunteers to his banner.

What Nicolas would do, once he had assumed power, is a different story which sceptics who know him well do not like to contemplate.

"Topple Lenine first. Let the future take care of itself," is the watchword of the hour, and on that theory the great war council at Stockholm is working.

Gathered there with the Grand Duke are General Yudenitch, Premier Lienezoff of the new anti-Bolshevist government of Northwest Russia; Skorpedsky, former hetman of the Ukraine, and high British military and naval man, for strong British cooperation on land and sea is assured.

BRITISH TO WITHDRAW.

Despite the increased military activities in Northern Russia, the British government is determined to withdraw her troops from that zone as soon as possible, it was explained by an official of the War Office today.

This statement, which reflects the view of the staff, emphasizes that the British are not directing, nor do they contemplate directing any military operations against Petrograd or any other part of Russia. Where the British are supplying materials to the anti-Bolsheviki they are also furnishing technical and military advisers.

"No British troops are involved in the Baltic States," said the official statement. "So far as this country is concerned the only part taken has been to supply material to the Poles and the Baltic peoples whom the allies are supporting under the peace treaty.

"The materials supplied by the British missions are going merely to the army of the new government of northwest Russia, to the Esthonians and the Poles. The operations in this part of Russia (north and southwest of Petrograd) are under the control of General Judenitch, who, in turn, is under Admiral Kolchak, head of the Omsk government.

"The suggestion that these forces are moving upon Petrograd is unfounded so far as the British authorities are concerned."

ALL UNDER KOLCHAK.

Asked if General Judenitch's proposed offensive against Petrograd is part of a general campaign linking up the offensive of General Denikén in South Russia, the official replied: "It is difficult to see how there could be any relationship between them except in the sense that all of the Russian generals are operating under the control of Admiral Kolchak. In point of fact, the leader of each anti-Bolshevik army is compelled by circumstances to act upon his own initiative."

For fear of revealing a military secret, the official declined to say how much war material had been sent into Russia by the British, but he admitted that some tanks were being employed there. It was reported in connection with the new hostilities that Esthonia refused to fight until the allies agreed to recognize her independence. (Esthonia lies on the Baltic coast between the Gulf of Finland and the Gulf of Riga.)

About 1,200 Russian officers from German prison camps are being drilled near London by the British and when their training is complete they will be sent to join Kolchak's army.

Commander Herricker Heaton of the admiralty said that the British sea raid against Kronstadt did not forecast a naval offensive.

CITY TO GREET ITALIAN NAVY GUESTS

Dreadnought Comte di Cavour Due in Boston Monday for 6 Days' Program

An extensive six days' program for the entertainment of the officers and crew of the Italian dreadnought Comte di Cavour, which is due in Boston Harbor at 10 o'clock Monday morning, was announced today.

The Mayor's reception committee announced that after the official calls have been made, the visitors will be treated to a round of dances, dinners, band concerts, receptions, and possibly a polo game, which will take up every minute of their time.

The program follows:

MONDAY.

9:15 a. m.—Rear Admiral's barge leaves Navy Yard with aide to board dreadnought at President's Roads.

9:30 a. m.—Steamship Monitor leaves Eastern Avenue Wharf. Two submarine chasers leave Northern Avenue Bridge to meet dreadnought.

10 a. m.—Dreadnought arrives at President's Roads.

10:30 a. m.—Comte di Cavour weighs anchor and proceeds to army supply base.

11 a. m.—Official calls by Admiral and commanding officer of the ship on the Mayor, the Governor, Major General Edwards and Rear Admirals Dunn, Robison and Eberle.

12 m.—Executive committee of the reception committee calls on officers, presenting invitations and program. Calls returned by Mayor and officers of the army and navy.

TUESDAY.

Special cars will carry one company of sailors, one company of marines and Charlestown Navy Yard Band and North End Company of the State Guard to the army supply base, arriving at 11:30 a. m. This escort will accompany Admiral Conz, captain and officers of the Italian ship together with a company of marines and sailors from the ship to Boston Common, where a band concert will have been in progress from 11:30 a. m., and where public welcome will be given to them, starting at 12:15. Chairman Charles A. Morse of the reception committee will preside, introducing the Mayor, Governor, Lieutenant Orlandini of the Italian army, Ambassador di Celleri and Admiral Hugo Conz, who will make short speeches. Then the other officers of the dreadnought will be introduced, and between speeches and between introductions, there will be music.

1:30 p. m.—Mayor's luncheon at the Copley-Plaza Hotel for the officers of the Italian ship. At the same time there will be luncheon for the Italian marines and sailors and for the North End Company of the State Guard at the Hotel Brunswick.

4 p. m.—Reception given by Rear Admiral Robison, commandant of the Boston Navy Yard, at his residence in the navy yard, to the officers of the Comte di Cavour.

WEDNESDAY.

11 a. m.—Officers transported by Red Cross Motor Corps from Army Supply Base to luncheon given by various individuals at Essex County Club at 1 o'clock.

2:30 p. m.—Automobile drive around Cape May.

4:30 p. m.—Tea at the residence of Mrs. Lancashire, Manchester-by-the-Sea.

7:30 p. m.—Parade of bands and Italian sailors through North End, arriving at North End Park at about 8:15 p. m.

In the meantime, steamship Monitor leaves Army Supply Base with company of sailors and marines from the dreadnought, arriving at North End Park pier at about 8:15 p. m. Special program of entertainment will be announced by Mr. Saverio Romano, chairman of special committee of Italians.

THURSDAY.

Officers leave ship at 2 p. m. for sight-seeing trip through Lexington and Concord, with tea at Concord in the afternoon.

Special cars will leave Army Supply Base at 7 p. m., carrying sailors and marines to Revere Beach for special entertainment by committee of which Representative Cassazza is chairman.

FRIDAY.

4 p. m.—Reception by admiral and officers of the Comte di Cavour on board dreadnought at the Army Supply Base.

8 p. m.—Dinner to be given by Rear Admiral Dunn at the Algonquin Club.

In addition to the above, it is possible that a polo game may be arranged for some time on Saturday, and it is probable that a dance for some of the marines and sailors under the auspices of the War Camp Community may be held at Revere Beach on Friday.

STRIKERS, HELD FOR ASSAULT, APPEAL

Alleged to Have Attacked Members of Hyde Park Rain Coat Firm

Six men, a strikers' committee of the Raincoat Workers' Union, were found guilty on two counts of assault and battery today, in the Dorchester court, by Judge Churchill. They appealed from said sentences and were held in $300 each for the Superior Court.

The men are Jacob Zeff, Chestnut street, Chelsea; Louis Ostroesky, Poplar street Chelsea; Isador Rifkin, Hitchborn street Revere; Hyman Weiner Emerald street, South End; Alec Lefeovitch, Cunard street, Roxbury and Fred Monson Intervale street, Dorchester. The alleged victims are Samuel Spivack, Wildwood street, and Frank Clegman Wilcox street both of Mattapan.

Spivack and Clegman are manufacturers of raincoats in Hyde Park. According to testimony, the six defendants who had been active in attempts to unionize employes, went on the night of August 14 to the home of Spivack and forced their way in. Clegman was present. Witnesses said that an altercation arose, in which the men demanded a forty-four-hour week and a 25 per cent increase in salary. Monson, it was alleged, split open Spivack's head with a blackjack. The defendants denied that they had been at the house, declaring they were at a meeting.

Judge Churchill found them all guilty and sentenced Monson to eight months in the House of Correction and the others to six months each. The cases were prosecuted by Patrolman Paul L. Doherty of the Mattapan station.

CLEVERLY MADE DUMMY CAUSES MURDER ALARM

Quakertown, Pa., Aug. 21.—Horrified to find what they believed to be the body of a dead girl lying along the banks of a stream near California, two children notified the village folks and Coroner White of this place made a quick trip to the spot.

Arriving on the scene, the coroner found the supposed girl nothing more than a cleverly executed model of a woman made from rags and placed in such a position as to mislead even careful observation. A knife was lying close to and red stains were placed on the body, indicating a bloody struggle.

Boston Beauties Called in Contest Over Shapely Legs

Is prim Miss Boston to prevent the proposed contest to pick the owner of the most beautiful legs in the world go by default?

It all started in New York with the arrival of the dashing, dark-eyed Mlle. Mistinguett, a French dancer, who boldly made the claim that her slender legs were the most beautiful and artistically perfect in the world. She insures them for $100,000.

But the French girl's statement was immediately challenged. Dozens of American girls who had been living in the patriotic belief that their underpinning was as good as any foreigner's, if not a little better, threw down the gauntlet.

RUSH TO GET IN.

An international beauty show, all the points to be awarded for legs, was proposed, and favorites of the stage and screen hastened to announce themselves as entrants.

Among them was the alluring little Ann Pennington, whose dimpled knee is almost as famous as Mary Pickford's smile, and who is wrought up over the brazen boast of the visitor.

Ann's trim figure in her Hawaiian dance is among our national institutions, and even the most carping critic has admitted her ability to fill pink tights in a manner highly pleasing.

Miss Pennington proposes a contest with male judges, and protests that if her legs are not as beautiful as those of any Frenchwoman, the critics have been "spoofing" her all these years.

HERE'S ANOTHER PAIR.

Among the other fair ones in the field to uphold America's honor in this beauty contest is Miss Pearl Eaton, also a dancer. Miss Eaton is of the opinion that Mlle. Mistinguett will be afraid to accept the challenge.

While no "entries" have been made from Boston yet, friends of a half dozen local beauties contend that if the "beauty show" is actually held, Boston will be well represented, and will carry off the prize.

Among those "mentioned" in this connection is Miss Alice Eldredge of Charlestown, whose shapely limbs have carried her to victory in many a swimming match at water carnivals hereabouts.

SAYS JAPANESE PLAN TO SEIZE SIBERIA

"President" of Korea Declares Second Step Is Appointment of Kato as Envoy

By International News Service.

Washington, Aug. 21.—That Japan had taken the second step toward seizure of Siberia in the appointment of the former minister to Belgium, Kato as an ambassador on a special mission to Siberia, and that it is Japan's ambition to control the Far East and after the Far East the world was charged today in a statement by Dr. Syngman Rhee, so-called "President of the Republic of Korea."

"Any reform in Korea at this time will stimulate rather than quiet down the spirit of independence on the part of the Koreans," Dr. Rhee said in commenting also on the announcement by the Japanese embassy of the imperial rescript issued in Tokyo granting various reforms in Korea. "But the imperial rescript does not mean that Korea will have any 'real reform,'" Dr. Rhee added, styling it as "merely one of those face-saving diplomatic schemes in Japan."

ROXBURY LEGION POST NOMINATES OFFICERS

Roxbury Post No. 44 of the American Legion nominated the following officers at its fourth meeting, in the Roxbury Boys' Club, Dudley street: F. T. Doyle, commander; George E. Election will take place at the next meeting, September 2, when tickets for the Victory ball, to be held in South Armory on Armistice Night, will be distributed to members.

LYNN GIVES BIG WELCOME TO SERGT. KORGIS

Thousands Cheer War Hero Who Captured 256 Germans Single Handed

Lynn paid tribute to her "one man army," Sergeant Hercules Korgis, with a welcome home in which the whole city joined. Thousands of citizens turned out to do honor to the Greek-born American, one of their own citizens, who while a member of the Second Division, A. E. F., overseas, single handed captured 256 Germans.

Returning directly from Camp Devens, where he was discharged, Sergeant Korgis was greeted on his arrival in the city by hundreds of his fellow Greeks and escorted to St. George's Greek Orthodox Church, where a reception was held in his honor and he was cheered to the echo.

Later a procession was formed and he was escorted to the Lynn City Hall, where another large crowd awaited his coming.

All the way to City Hall the war hero was cheered by the crowds that lined the Common, overflowed the sidewalks and filled the windows of every house along the route.

Later, at the armory, Sergeant Korgis was presented with a huge pasteboard "Key to the City" by Mayor Walter H. Creamer, while the crowd continued their thunderous ovation and waved their flags, the standards of Greece and America.

"Wonderful! wonderful!" exclaimed the sergeant in a sort of daze when he had been borne inside the hall to be introduced to the city fathers, Grand Army veterans and veterans of other wars—representatives of all the many different patriotic organizations. "I never dreamed of such a welcome."

"I can't make a speech," he continued. "I am not a speaker. I am a soldier. I bled for my country. I want to say I am ready to bleed again—ready to bleed always for the greatest country in the world—the United States of America."

There was no applause. And the silence meant much more.

"You don't have to employ words," Mayor Creamer declared. "You have spoken in deeds."

HOME RULE FOR IRELAND DEAD ISSUE, SAYS McSWEENEY

ANCIENT NATION ENTITLED TO HER INDEPENDENCE

overpaid by Ireland to England which in a hundred years amounts to almost $2,000,000,000.

In addition to this, non-resident Tory landlords, who were said by Lord Cowper in 1887 to be so negligent of their responsibility that "one could count on one's fingers the number of Irish estates on which the improvements were made by the landlords," took from Ireland a billion dollars in rent during the Nineteenth Century. If Ireland could be paid back one-quarter of what has been stolen from her since the Act of Union, she would be the richest nation per capita on earth. But she is not even asking for this—all that she wants is the self-determination which was promised by this country when it went to war. It does not want to remain the land of the only white race in slavery.

Because this question of Home Rule is a cause of misunderstanding, it is worthy of a brief discussion.

INDEPENDENCE MISUNDERSTOOD.

Centuries of tyranny, repressions, colonization, hangings, torture, assassinations, reform bills, home rule bills, coercion bills, crime acts, final settlements, government without the consent of the governed, and all the other measures of British statesmanship which have been used to crush out Irish nationality, have only made the spirit of Irish nationality the most persistent and intense in the whole world. It must be admitted, however, that up to the war the general opinion outside of Ireland was that it was an integral part of the British government. Home Rule could be understood, but Independence could not.

That Ireland is not only obviously designed by God for separate and independent existence, but economically and politically is able to live alone, is fast becoming accepted. Objections against Irish self-determination can similarly be applied to all the small free nations on earth. Civilization, moreover, has at last reached the point that it is in agreement as to the benefits which complete self-government confers not alone on itself but on humanity.

Six months ago the British government flouted with scorn any idea of even a partial Irish Home Rule, such as was passed and afterwards held up in 1914. Driven by the force of an outraged world-opinion from one position to another, the attempt is now being made to divert public opinion from the real issue of complete independence by an attempt to gain consideration for various kinds of Home Rule.

The "Dominion Home Rule" proposal, a red herring drawn across the trail, is without any semblance of government authority, and illustrates beautifully British control of the machinery of news distribution, and how propaganda is fed to the United States. The so-called "Federation" program is an excellent example. A bill to this end was introduced into Parliament about mid June this year, debated and passed on June 4. Its reception, especially by the radical London press, was unfavorable.

ANOTHER "FEELER" SENT OUT.

Nothing appeared in the American papers about it, however, and on June 20 another "feeler" was put out by publishing in the United States the Horace Plunkett plan for Dominion Home Rule. Propaganda editorials and special articles discussing the Home Rule question appeared on the same day the "news" was published, but this plan also fell flat. It was then obviously decided to revive the official "Federation Scheme," and on July 16, six weeks after it had been passed by Parliament in its preliminary form, it was cabled to the press of the United States as "news."

The only official pronouncement made defining the British policy regarding any Home Rule measure is in a pamphlet issued by the British Propaganda Office, of which Lord Northcliffe is the head, entitled "The Irish Question—Federation or Secession."

After repeating the old falsehoods regarding the superiority in character, industry, political stability and loyalty of the Ulsterite Protestant, as compared with the fickleness, ignorance and poverty of the priest-ridden South, the official principles of any form of Home Rule are laid down.

> First—That the Westminster Parliament shall retain all the powers and functions not expressly delegated and made over to the National Parliament.
>
> Second—That customs and excise, which are not merely the symbols of union but are of the very essence of union, shall remain in the hands of the Westminster Parliament.
>
> Third—That whatever happens, Ulster must have its own way.

There is much more in this official British document of the denial of Ireland's wrongs under the Acts of Union, but, reduced to essentials, any one of the various Home Rule schemes is based on maintaining existing political, social and industrial partitions, which it is the essence of the claim for Irish liberty to remove forever.

DUPLICITY OF GREAT BRITAIN.

The fact that all the recently proposed plans go farther than any scheme of Irish Home Rule ever previously presented does not entitle them to serious consideration. Great Britain never moves to grant justice to any of its subject peoples unless by the pressure of applied force. The same British government put Parnell in jail in 1880 for agitating a reform that the Unionists unctuously adopted in 1903.

Parnell, moreover, did not advocate Home Rule as the final solution. He said: "We have never attempted to fix the ne plus ultra of Ireland's nationhood, and we never shall; no man shall set a bound to the onward march of a nation."

If the British government had carried out the Home Rule bill passed by Parliament in May, 1914, it would have created better feeling, and possibly postponed the day of final separation, but because the tenacity of the Irish to racial ideals has not been surpassed in the history of the world it could not have stopped its ultimate coming.

The Irish have been driven by centuries of cruel oppression sometimes to complain and whimper, and even to appeal to their enemies, but they have never yet learned to admit defeat. They have in some cases been taught a mean wisdom: To dodge the lash and flatter the overseer; but it has not forced them to throw up their hands. The cry of surrender has never been forced from the throat of the Irish people.

During the last fifty years, on numerous occasions, the power of an awakened sentiment for justice for Ireland had forced the British government to offer palliatives, as today, to divert the public mind.

Joseph Chamberlain, a bitter hater of Ireland, had one a generation ago. A "Federal devolution plan," headed by Lord Dunraven and William O'Brien, a plaster and not a cure.

ANOTHER "SCRAP OF PAPER."

After the Great War started and England made a "scrap of paper" of her parliamentary act granting a measure of Home Rule to Ireland, Lloyd George devised a hand-picked Irish Convention which, by an overwhelming majority, put itself on record in favor of a Home Rule including Ulster, which was refused by the Tory North. Coming at a time when England was asking for American aid, it was obviously "bait," an expedient to divert attention—to expose "Irish division"—an old trick of British diplomacy.

Another unsuccessful scheme of Federal government was devised by Stephen Gwynne, under which Ireland was to have four parliaments, all working under a central parliament at Dublin.

The Irish question can only be settled definitely when it is settled right, not by any consideration of England's interests, but wholly of Ireland's rights. It must consider what has been forgotten in Britain for centuries, that first of all Ireland must get her "self respect." The unescapable effect of centuries of experience vitiates any compromise made in England, or, for that matter, in Anglo-Ireland. Ireland has stopped asking favors or grants or concessions. If O'Connell and Parnell were alive today they would be the leaders in the movement for Irish independence.

Opposition to Home Rule is not a matter of Irish fickleness, for Ireland is not fickle—it stood by O'Connell for forty years, and supported Parnell and Redmond for more than forty years.

Its appeal to the world today is based wholly on the promise of the United States, agreed to by the allies, that the war was fought for certain purposes. Ireland only demands the inherent, inalienable, indefeasible rights of nationhood, which the United States claimed for itself more than fourteen decades ago, and to gain which for all the world it entered and won the war.

The Peace Conference has restored these rights to Belgium, it has revived them for Bohemia, Poland and Serbia, and has created them for a host of smaller nations almost unheard of before the war.

IRELAND MERELY DEMANDS HER RIGHTS.

By every right and title, therefore, Ireland now demands its sovereign independence clear of all liens and tributes. What would Belgium say if, after these solemn promises, the Peace Conference tried to compromise by allowing Germany to hold Belgium under Dominion Home Rule. Or Poland? Or Bohemia?

It cannot be repeated too often—Ireland is a nation, a nation distinct and apart and different from England. If Irish nationality refused to die in spite of gallows, famine, pest, exile and penal laws of diabolical contrivance, will she now sell her soul for a mess of pottage? Even if she fought for Home Rule in the days of the world which is passing away, she never renounced her right to her full stature of nationhood.

By every test of American principle and tradition we are bound to concede to Ireland the right to determine her own government regardless of English ideas or interests. Unless the law of might is above the law of right it is no more England's or America's business to say how the Irish shall govern themselves than to say how the French shall govern themselves.

The status of Canada under Great Britain is beside the question. Canada is, and has been for centuries, an integral part of the Empire; and has become so through conquest, accepted, or by colonization. Canada—outside of Quebec—is really another England. Ireland never became an integral part, but has been and is today a distinct and opposed nationality. Canada—outside of Quebec—owes its national characteristics to England; she prides herself on being part and parcel of England.

Regarding the alleged benefit in trade and commerce to be gained by Ireland retaining its tie with the British Empire, the answer is that even greater reasons can be found for retaining the tie between Belgium and Germany, or Norway and Sweden, or Finland and the former Imperial Russian government. Such an argument would justify numerous kinds of illicit or doubtful combinations, but are incompatible with self-respect.

ENGLAND AS "BEST CUSTOMER."

England is Ireland's best customer—only because all shipping is in English hands. Could not that same condition exist if Ireland were an independent nation? England does not trade now with Ireland because of her wish to help Ireland; it suits her own interest; and for the same reason she would trade with an independent Ireland.

Ireland exports to England all of her commodities which were better kept at home—live stock which used land that should have been given to tillage, hay of the same kind, distillery and brewery products, wool and leather on the beast to be made up in English factories and sent back to Ireland and sold at a profit as manufactured.

The one great truth was expressed by Webster:

> "We may talk of it as we please, but there is nothing that satisfies the human mind in an enlightened age, unless man is governed by his own country and the institutions of his own government. No matter how easy be the yoke of a foreign power, no matter how lightly it sits upon the shoulders, if it is not imposed by the voice of his own nation and of his own country he will not, he cannot, he means not, to be happy under its burden."

Ireland and England are, by God's providence, two distinct and diverse nations. Ireland had a glorious history for hundreds of years before England had emerged from barbarianism, and its established nationality was arrested at the English occupation. It will revive only by the complete ending of that occupation. Ireland cannot afford, without sacrificing her history and her soul, to be satisfied with less than her complete and independent national life. As long as she is tied to England, even under the wisest Dominion or Federal Home Rule measure, she is a part of England. England's flag is her flag. Before the nations of the world she has no ambassadors but England's. She must perforce adjust her life to English standards. She must English herself. She must deny herself.

IRELAND ABLE TO GOVERN HERSELF.

It may be true that behind the thought that Home Rule, not Independence, is best for Ireland, is the feeling that the Irish are not fit for self government. This is the result of propaganda by the English, who have been conquered and absorbed every time their island was invaded, that the Irish, who have never been conquered, are an inferior race. Many of the traits of which they are accused are the direct result of English design. If the Irish stock in America accept this theory they are dishonoring themselves and setting up for all time an artificial discrimination against their children's hope of success.

Until Ireland can stand before the world as distinct a nation as England, the Irish race the world over must suffer from the bondage of their fathers' name and land.

"Bond—from the toil of hate we may not cease;
Free—we are to be your friend.
And when you make your banquet, and we come,
Soldier with equal soldier must we sit
Closing a battle—not forgetting it.
With not a name to hide.
This mate and mother of valiant "rebels" dead
Must come with all her history on her head.
We keep the past for pride.
No deepest peace shall strike our poets dumb;
No rawest squad of all Death's volunteers,
No rudest man who died
To tear your flag down in the bitter years
But shall have praise, and three times three again,
When at that table men shall drink with men."

While England can enforce any form of government on Ireland these words will not ring true.

Americans of the Irish race believe that complete and independent government, which has been decreed by 75 per cent. of the Irish people, is their right.

It can never secure its full nationhood, with a national mind and national ideals unless divorced from England.

To Be Continued in Tomorrow's Boston American.

Hibernians Declare Gompers Ignores Ireland's Claim

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 21.—A sharp rebuke to Samuel Gompers by the Pennsylvania State convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, now in session here, is talked of by many of the delegates, who declare Gompers has been guilty of trickery in connection with the expression of the attitude of labor toward the League of Nations. The delegates say the Gompers attitude favors the league and ignores Ireland's claims to freedom.

A strong appeal for American support of the Irish cause was made by Harry J. Boland, secretary to President De Valera of the Irish republic. A similar appeal was made by Dr. Patrick McCartan, Sinn Fein member of Parliament.

MILFORD ENJOYING BOOM IN MARRYING

Milford, Aug. 21.—Four weddings took place here within about six hours of each other. A double wedding was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hentschel, Beaver street, when Reta I. Hentschel and Embree A. Willis and Edward F. Hentschel and Edith P. Meeper were married. The two other marriages were those of Miss Catherine Conley, a Milford schoolteacher, and James O'Malley, a shoe worker, and Miss Vivian E. [illegible] and Paul A. Daniels of Millis.

GLASS IN BREAD CHARGED; SUIT FOR $2,000

Cambridge Woman Alleges She Was Seriously Injured by Eating Part of Loaf

Charging that she was seriously injured by eating bits of glass contained in a loaf of bread sold her by the Manhattan Grocery & Provision Company of Cambridge, Catherine Kiley of Cambridge has sued the company for $2,000 in Middlesex Superior Court.

The Boston Elevated is the defendant in an unusual $5,000 damage suit brought in the same court by Josephine Sloane of Medford. The plaintiff bases her claims on injuries received during a fight between a conductor and a passenger.

Among other damage suits brought is that of Mrs. Mary Triconi of Waverley against Antonio Mazzeo of Belmont, for $1,000. The plaintiff alleges that on May 9 last she was severely bitten by a dog owned by the defendant.

John W. Whitney of Somerville is sued for $10,000 by George F. Wall of Somerville, who alleges that on May 13 he was injured by bricks which fell from a house the defendant was demolishing.

George W. Bowers of Somerville is sued for $10,000 by John J. Tarpey of Somerville, who alleges that he was struck and injured by the defendant's auto.

George L. Carrier of Cambridge is sued for $20,000 by Abraham Raffer of Cambridge, a minor, who brings suit through Isidore Raffer, his father. He alleges that on June 16 last he was struck and seriously hurt by the defendant's automobile.

STATE SILENT ON PLANS FOR NATIONAL GUARD

The delay in organizing the National Guard in Massachusetts is a constant matter of comment among army officers who are interested in seeing the guard well started in the Bay State. In New Hampshire, Vermont, Maine and Rhode Island, work on organizing the National Guard has been under way for some time. Connecticut retains its State Guard, which is well organized.

Hand Grenade Banks as a Reward for Thrifty Children

Plans are now being formulated for the distribution of 250,000 miniature banks made from hand grenades, for the thrifty children of New England. It is possible that banks and representative department stores will be the places at which children may go to secure these souvenirs. The banks are made to hold pennies and dimes. These hand grenade banks are now on their way from Washington.

A boy or girl under ten years who has invested money in War Savings Stamps is eligible to receive one of the banks. Children over ten years may receive a bank provided they have invested in at least two War Savings Stamps.

WHAT BABE RUTH THINKS ABOUT "PAT MORAN"

Every fan in New England will be glad to know that Babe Ruth is personally writing weekly sketches of the great national game for the Boston Sunday Advertiser. Next Sunday he writes his impressions of the great leader of the Cincinnati National League Club, which club has every earmark of being a pennant winner in the elder league. Pitchers are keen judges of men—they have to be, and Ruth's analysis of Moran is the greatest yet.

CHARLES E. PUTNAM, PARK ENGINEER, DEAD

Charles E. Putnam, chief engineer of the Park and Recreation Department, is dead at his home, No. 105 Hutchins street, Roxbury.

Mr. Putnam entered the service of the city thirty-six years ago in the work of the improvement of the sewerage. He was appointed engineer of the Park Department in 1887, when construction work was begun on Franklin Park. He had entire charge of this work, and since that time has had full charge of all the undertakings of that department, including the extensive system of playgrounds.

ROOSEVELT IS TO ATTEND NAVAL FIELD DAY

Baseball Game of Boston and New York Yard Teams Will Be Big Feature of Outing

Many prominent persons, both naval and civil, will be guests at the Boston Navy Yard on Saturday at the annual field day, for which extensive preparations have been made. The main feature will be a baseball game between the Boston and New York Navy Yard teams, the second match of the series for the championship of the Atlantic coast.

The committee will meet the delegation from New York, about 200 in number, at 9:30 in the morning and take them by automobile through historical Greater Boston. The party will return to the navy yard at 12:30 when a luncheon will be served.

The guests will then be taken to Fenway Park, where before and during the game the Navy Yard Band will furnish music. Following the game all will proceed to Paragon Park, where a banquet will be served in the Palm Garden.

Among the distinguished invited guests are Acting Secretary of the Navy Franklin D. Roosevelt, Senators Henry Cabot Lodge and David I. Walsh, Governor Coolidge, Mayor Peters, President Francis J. W. Ford of the City Council and members of the State Senate and House of Representatives, as well as other prominent citizens.

The Navy Department will be represented by Rear Admiral S. S. Robison, Commandant of the Boston yard, Rear Admiral Dunne, commandant of the First Naval District; Rear Admiral Eberle and several other officers, including Captain A. E. Watson of the yard, Captain Bailey, Commander Bass, Commander Frank, Captain Stanford and Lieutenant [illegible] B. Burns, chaplain of the yard.

Representatives from the Fore River and Squantum plants will be present. The committees arranging the details of the field day program are in charge of J. Blagdon, chairman, and C. E. MacLaughlin, secretary and treasurer.

K. C. CHIEF, OVERSEAS, PRAISES FORD'S BOOK

Edward L. Hearn, overseas commissioner for the Knights of Columbus and ranking director of all K. C. welfare work with the American Expeditionary Forces, today sent from his Paris headquarters a flattering tribute to Bert Ford's book, "The Fighting Yankees Overseas," which is a "closeup" of the sacrifices and achievements of the New England troops in the world war. Commissioner Hearn's letter follows:

My dear Mr. Ford:

I have just received and read a copy of your recent publication on the war. It is simply splendid, and, as one who was more or less in touch with many of the events portrayed in the book, I take especial pleasure in telling you this. The book ought, and I have no doubt will, have wonderful circulation.

All of the people of New England, of course, take deep interest in everything affecting the 26th Division over here, and they ought, in justice to their interests, to possess a copy of your history of the work and service of the 26th Division in France.

Cocoanut Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless) is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Advertisement.

GIRLS! USE LEMONS FOR SUNBURN, TAN

Try It! Make this lemon lotion to whiten your tanned or freckled skin.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion whitener, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands and see how quickly the freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.—Advertisement.

It was announced that many tons of canned goods still await purchasers at the army supply depot in South Boston.

Acting Mayor Francis J. W. Ford has announced that municipal funds will be employed without stint in buying army foods for direct sale to the public.

Tomorrow throughout the city another large purchase of surplus army food goes on sale at the following stations:

South Boston municipal building, No. 261 Bowdoin street, Cadman square and St. Ambrose Parish Hall, Dorchester; Brighton Town Hall; Hull, Farragut, Lowell, Sherwin and Cousins schools, Roxbury; municipal building, Ward 12; Cushman school, North End; Bunkerstone school, West End, and Assumption school, East Boston. At 1 o'clock Friday, sales will be made at the Daughters of the Nation Hall, No. 1841 Centre street, West Roxbury, and the Charlestown High School.

These sales will begin at 10 a. m.

OFFERS UNFINISHED SCHOOL TO LAWRENCE

Lawrence, Aug. 21.—Lack of funds to complete the new Italian school on Summer street has caused the Rev. Fr. M. Milanese, pastor of the Church of the Holy Rosary, to offer it to the city as a solution of the problem of caring for the overflow of school children which may take place this Fall.

The priest says he will sell the building, which is one of the finest in the State, for $225,000. It contains fourteen class rooms, offices and rest rooms. It has an auditorium which will seat 1,000. The school board may ask the city council to procure the building at its next meeting. The price is considered reasonable and cheaper than the city could build a similar structure for.

"PEEPING TOM" GETS THRASHING, BUT ESCAPES

Newburyport, Aug. 21.—Search is being made for a man who has been annoying Plum Island cottagers for more than ten days by peeping in their windows. He has been scared away from six cottages. City Councilman E. F. Murphy discovered the man peeping in at a window and thrashed him, but he escaped. Suspicion centres on a man who has served a jail term for an offence of

BOY BREAKS LEG HANGING ON FENCE

Alfred E. Myers, son of Mrs. Alfred E. Myers, of No. 4 Court Street place, Arlington, is suffering from a broken leg sustained while trying to climb a fence. The boy either tried to jump over or lost his balance and fell. His right leg caught between the pickets and was fractured. He hung from the fence until a neighbor and the boy's mother came to his rescue.

PLANT STRIKERS VOTE AGAINST GOING BACK

About 1,500 of the striking shoe workers of the Thomas G. Plant Company factory of Roxbury met in Hibernian Hall, Roxbury, and unanimously voted to remain out until recognition of their union has been granted by the employers.

The workers have been on strike for fifteen weeks.

SAYS MACON BUTCHERS GET 100 PER CENT. PROFIT

Macon, Ga., Aug. 21.—Charges are made by C. M. Muse, of the Bureau of Investigation, who has been in Macon investigating food prices, that the retail meat dealers of Macon are making more than 100 per cent. profit on every carcass they sell. He declared that a carcass which is bought for $60 brings the dealer $123.80.

SAYS WOONSOCKET BARS SELL WHISKEY

Uxbridge, Aug. 21.—Eugene [illegible], a young man having but one arm, when arraigned before Judge P. F. Brady in Uxbridge Court for being drunk, attributed his condition to whiskey he said he bought in saloons. He said he and his chum bought plenty of whiskey in saloons in Woonsocket.

FOOD SITUATION ABROAD APPALLS MR. HOOVER

Expert Finds Dependence Upon United States Is Pathetic

By International News Service.

Paris, Aug. 21.—[illegible] the shining [illegible] famine-ridden peoples of former Austria-Hungary [illegible] are looking to save them [illegible] Herbert Hoover, [illegible] food relief [illegible], who has just arrived here [illegible] through Central Europe.

"The most [illegible] conditions prevail everywhere," [illegible] Mr. Hoover. "The [illegible] is the pathetic dependence upon the United States. President Wilson was right when he said that immediate peace is necessary to save the whole of Europe as well [illegible] our own economic future."

Mr. Hoover and his party gained the impression that the millions of people throughout [illegible] Europe are in a panic of fear that the Hapsburg rule may be restored. Although the vast population of the former dual empire is on the verge of actual starvation, the people are zealously guarding their newly found liberties.

The cry that greets every American, Mr. Hoover said, is: "For God's sake, do not leave us now."

In Poland the people are tilling the fields with home-made farming implements. The Poles declare that they want only one more year's assistance from the United States and then they will be able to stand upon their own feet.

"It makes one's heart ache to see the misery of the people in the cities," said one member of the Hoover party. "The people are starved and listless. The whole country is like another world, completely cut off from civilization. The people are like little children groping in the dark."

The train the Hoover party came through on had to stop every little while to take on a fresh water supply, as the locomotive boiler leaked badly. This is typical of all of the rolling stock in Austria and Hungary.

PRIZE BRITISH SHEEP ARRIVE AT BOSTON

Four hundred and fifty prize sheep reached Boston from Glasgow in the steamship Malvern Range, the animals being consigned to breeders in Haverhill and to a Wisconsin ranch. The breeds include Shropshires, Oxford Downs and Cotswolds. The manifest also showed four Berkshire hogs. After the customary period of quarantine at Littleton the animals will be forwarded to their destinations.

Grip Epidemic This Winter Improbable, Army Doctors Say

Army officers do not believe there will be an epidemic recurrence of influenza this Winter.

Colonel Jefferson R. Kean, department surgeon of the Northeast, who has seen 35 years' service, said today:

"There will be a few sporadic cases, but I do not think we will have any alarming recurrence of the disease. I base my opinion upon the [illegible] former epidemics have [illegible]. You do not find epidemics recurring after short periods, but after long intervals.

"Upon the same I think it is safe to say that we will have no repetition of the influenza that we had to face last year."

Major Arthur [illegible] Austin, attending surgeon, said: "After the epidemic of [illegible] we did not have any great return of the influenza till last year. Epidemics take long jumps in time."

DECLARE BOSTON FISH UNFIT FOR USE

New Jersey Officials Start Condemnation Proceedings; Stored Over a Year

Trenton, N. J., Aug. 21.—Alleging that 56,000 pounds of fish belonging to the Bay State Fish Company of Boston and stored here to be in a state of partial decomposition and unfit for human consumption, condemnation proceedings have been begun by the State Department of Health.

The fish has been in the warehouse of the Barnegat Power and Cold Storage Company at Seaside Heights, N. J., since August 13, 1918.

The next step will come Friday when officials of the Bay State Company, together with F. D. Eckman, general manager of the storage warehouse, will be required to show cause before Director Jacob C. Price of the State Health Department why the fish should not be confiscated.

The fish figuring in the proceedings include halibut weighing approximately 38,000 pounds; smelts, 4,550 pounds, and mackerel, 12,970 pounds.

One package of the frozen halibut was found stamped "Rec. 7-5-17", which was taken to mean that the fish or at least the particular box examined, had been in storage somewhere for more than two years.

THREATS WERE MADE AGAINST MRS. CASTLE

Husband Says "Villainous" Letter Was Received Night After They Were Married

By Universal Service.

Ithaca, N. Y., Aug. 21.—Captain Robert E. Treman Jr. and Mrs. Irene Castle Treman deny the report that they had been secretly married at Pickens, S. C., on May 21, 1918, about three months after the death of Vernon Castle and nearly a year before their public marriage at the Church of the Transfiguration in New York.

Almost beside himself with rage after reading a published account of the alleged secret marriage Captain Treman said:

"The night after we were married a letter of villainous content was sent us. It was from a person who said our happiness would soon be marred. Ever since then lies and false reports have been going the rounds and we have allowed some of these stories, rumors and gossip to stand rather than endure the publicity of issuing constant denials.

"But this is too much, this story of a secret marriage and matters referring to my wife's alleged mercenary desire to keep the reported marriage secret rather than injure the sale of a book she was supposed to have been interested in."

ENLARGE LABORATORY TO STUDY CORN BORER

The United States entomological laboratory, in the Board of Trade building, Arlington, which was established this Spring as an experimental station to study and fight against the corn borer, is being enlarged in order to care for the increasing demands of those working on this problem.

Those in charge feel that the best way to get rid of the pest is to burn all corn stalks and, in fact, all of the vines of the gardens and farms.

Morgan Memorial Camp Inspected by Hundreds

South Athol, Aug. 21.—Hundreds of persons, a large number from Boston, were guests of the Morgan Memorial of Boston here yesterday for the annual inspection day of the South Athol fresh air camp of that institution. The children ran through a series of exercises, gave their camp yells and displayed with pride their gardens.

The guests were shown the entire 200-acre camp and the additional 100 acres of farm land recently acquired as the first step in the Morgan Memorial plan of rehabilitating abandoned farms in the Swift River Valley.

TEN CAUGHT AT GAME IN SHOE SHINE SHOP

Lawrence, Aug. 21.—"Professor Mike's" shoe shine parlors at No. 11[illegible] Essex street was raided by the vice squad and ten men were arrested, six of whom were charged with being present at a game, three on a charge of gaming and one with maintaining a gambling nuisance.

"Mike" Derosa on the latter complaint was fined $50 by Judge J. J. Mahoney. Both onlookers and gamers were each assessed $5 by the court. The men were in the midst of "three sevens," a kind of card game, when the officers swooped down upon them. One officer entering by the rear door created a stampede for the front entrance. When they reached the sidewalk the patrol was backed up for them to step into, a wall of bluecoats standing on either side of the front entrance.

NOW is the time to buy FURS at August savings

Filene's

NO TIPPING a phase of value giving

THE tip is a little thing we are apt to overlook when we look at prices, or even when later on we figure up what we have spent.

Filene prices are made without any tips to be figured into them. Barber shop, restaurant, shoe-shining, manicuring—to the cost of none must this extra be added!

It is one phase of Filene value-giving. It is important when you figure the cost of your meals or those little "fixings-up" that most of us have daily.

And it is indicative of the sort of BETTER VALUES you will find right through this store. Values which are better than ever in August—a better-value month!

We keep the furs in storage under a deferred payment plan: Pay one-fourth now—the rest when the furs are taken. If furs are charged, one-fourth goes on the August bill, the rest on the November bill due December 1, regardless of when furs are taken.

A good August buy would be a youthful velours model with a deep nutria collar. Its slim lines are exquisitely tailored and the coat is handlined throughout—$85.

$55 which really didn't seem very much for a summer suit will buy you an altogether good looking fall suit of soft brown velours—a trim little model which will be at its best with furs.

Then there's a severe melton cloth suit with braid bound edges—a very businesslike suit for $45.

Picture a deep shade of mocha peachbloom—the coat topped with a huge collar of beaver—deep cuffs of the same fur—and you have one of the best looking suits we've seen this season—$225.

JAILED ON DESERTION CHARGE AFTER 3 YEARS

Charged with the desertion of his wife and small child, Clarence W. Dewey, fifty, a former Watertown druggist, was lodged in East Cambridge jail pending a hearing.

Dewey was arrested at Chester, Vt., on an indictment warrant sworn out in the Summer of 1916 prior to the date he obtained a divorce in Reno, Nev., and married a second time to a former Brookline woman in California.

According to the complaint made by Mrs. Dewey, the druggist sent her and her child away for a vacation in August, 1916. During her absence, she asserts, he disappeared, taking with him all the family property.

THIN, FRAIL FOLKS NEED PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

GEORGIA HAMILTON.

Thinness and weakness are often due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate should produce a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

Increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, should soon disappear, dull eyes ought to brighten, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health. Miss Georgia Hamilton, who was once thin and frail, reporting her own experience, writes: "Bitro-Phosphate has brought about a magic transformation with me. I gained 15 pounds and never before felt so well."

CAUTION:—Although bitro-phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, it should not, owing to its tendency to increase weight, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.—Advertisement.

OFFICE RENTAL RAISED 200 PER CENT.

Scores of complaints, alleging rent profiteering, continue to be received by the Commission on the Necessaries of Life and all plans are set for a hearing in the State House on August 28.

Many of the complaints show increases varying from 10 per cent to more than 100 per cent. Residents of various communities are organizing and selecting committees to attend the hearing.

Among the complaints received and which are now being investigated by the commission, is one from Aberdeen street. The complainant has received notice that the rent will be raised on September 1 from $36.50 to $[illegible].

One block on Massachusetts avenue, containing 90 apartments, shows an average increase of $5 per month to each tenant, which means an increase in rent for the block amounting to $5,400 a year.

Similar complaints have been received from apartment occupants in Batavia street, Huntington avenue and other sections of the city. While the commission is directing its attention chiefly to the household rent situation, complaints are also being received from business offices.

A tenant of an office in a Milk street block writes that up to May 1, 1919, his rent was $45 per month. It was then raised to $62.50 per month. He has now received notice that on September 1 his lease expires. If he desires to remain he may sign a three-year lease at $1,650 per year, an increase of approximately 200 per cent over the May figure.

The citizens of Watertown are complaining in large numbers. On Friday night they will hold an indignation meeting in the Town Hall and the results of this meeting will be sent to the commission.

HAIR HINTS

Helpful Advice for Care of the Hair Worthy the Attention of Everyone Who Would Avoid Dandruff, Itching Scalp, Gray Hair and Baldness.

If your hair is getting thin or you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp use Parisian sage daily for a week and you will surely be surprised to see how quickly it stops your hair from falling and removes every sign of dandruff and itching scalp.

"Before going to bed I rub a little Parisian sage into my scalp," says a woman whose luxurious, soft and fluffy hair is greatly admired. "This keeps my hair from being dry, brittle or scraggly, helps it to retain its natural color and beauty, and makes it easy to dress attractively."

Beautiful, soft, glossy, healthy hair, and lots of it, is a simple matter for those who use Parisian sage. This harmless, inexpensive, delicately perfumed, and non-greasy invigorator is sold at all good drug and toilet counters. Be sure you get the genuine Parisian sage (Giroux's), as that has the money-back guarantee printed on every package.—Advertisement.

FIVE SOLDIERS UNDER DEATH SENTENCE

New York, Aug. 21.—The transport Troy docked here, bringing home from France five American soldiers under sentence of death. Two are charged with murder and another with sleeping on his post. The cases are being reviewed by President Wilson.

The Troy also carried several thousand returning veterans of the 24th Infantry and 3rd Field Artillery Brigade Headquarters, while still more members of the same detachment were passengers aboard the Matsonia.

Part of the 58th Infantry, which played a conspicuous part in stemming the German tide at Chateau Thierry, arrived on the transport America.

FOSS IS FEATURE OF POLITICAL DAY AT FAIR

Suggests Registration of All Food Dealers, in Marshfield Talk

Marshfield, Aug. 21.—Registration of all dealers in foodstuffs, together with the provision that they be forced to take oath as to what they have in storage and in stock, was suggested today at the Fair by Ex-Governor Eugene N. Foss as one way of lowering the cost of living.

Mr. Foss, who is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, declared that the right legislation on Beacon Hill would go far towards improving conditions in Massachusetts.

This was political day at the fair, and speeches were also made by Governor Coolidge, Lieutenant-Governor Cox, Speaker Warner, Thomas W. Lawson and Richard H. Long. Mr. Foss spoke in part as follows:

"The most important question of the day is food. This is the problem which should engage the attention of Congress and our State governments.

"The cost of the necessaries of life is beyond all reason and the prices are working great hardship and suffering upon the people.

"Many are going without sufficient food, and women and children are sick and literally suffering for want of proper nourishment in this land of plenty. Why not do something effective and worth while? It is clearly shown that there is hoarding of quantities of food in cold storage which should be released and put on the market at reasonable prices.

PRAISE FOR WALSH.

"Congress seems indifferent. The only real statesmanlike speech which has been made on the floor of Congress on this burning question was by our junior Senator, David I. Walsh. He has risen to the occasion and Congress should heed his warning. As he wisely says, this food question outweighs the League of Nations, or any other question today, and demands immediate attention.

"As Senator Walsh says, if Congress has thrown up its hands and cannot do anything to relieve this most serious situation, then let them say so—be honest about it. The people will then know what to expect from that body. People will take matters into their own hands if relief does not come soon from some source. Would that there were more like Senator Walsh in the Senate. More power to his arm!

"Why can't these food hoarders and profiteers be brought to time? I think they can. What is the matter with requiring all of them to be registered and take oath as to what they have in storage and in stock?

BELIEVES IN CONSCRIPTION.

"The packers of Chicago control today not only the meat supply of the country, but the leather and the boot and shoe industry as well. Shoes are about as necessary as food in this climate. My solution is conscription. Some drastic steps must be taken; the situation demands it.

"There is very much that we can do to remedy this situation which confronts us, and with the right legislation on Beacon Hill we can go far towards materially improving conditions in Massachusetts.

"We must make more of our agricultural opportunities and bring about a greater production and a more economical distribution of our farm products.

"This whole question is tied up very closely to the question of transportation. We have no real system of handling our farm products.

"Railroad and railway transportation is a governmental function. These are necessities, and my view is that the government should own and control these great arteries of distribution which affect so seriously the cost of the necessaries of life."

Light on Boy's Kite Looked to Newton Like Comet

Something like Mr. Pickwick's mysterious night flash flickered over Newton.

It bobbed about the sky in the most erratic manner and was variously taken by wondering groups on the streets as a comet, a "shooting star" or just a freak of nature.

The latter guess was the nearest, because it was just a lantern tied to a kite's tail by an ingenious boy who was reversing Franklin's stunt of taking light from the firmament.

POLICE STRIKE THREATENS LAWRENCE

Demand $5 a Day Minimum and That City Defray Cost of Uniforms

Lawrence, Aug. 21.—The probability of a strike of the policemen was increased today, when it was stated on good authority that the men's demands for $5 a day would be rejected. It was declared that there is no money available except by means of overdraft, and this action is opposed by members of the City Council.

It is believed that the city officials will hear the report of the civics committee of the local Chamber of Commerce, which meets tomorrow, and which is known to be opposed to the granting of the demands.

The demands embrace a minimum wage of $5 a day, or a raise in pay of 75 cents a day over the present scale; pay for overtime; one day off in eight instead of the present arrangement of one off in fifteen, and that the city provide uniforms for police officers.

A committee comprising Captain John J. Sullivan, Officer Patrick J. Morrissey and Officer Maurice J. Fitzgerald will appear before the City Council and present the demands.

Activities of the police along these lines have been going on quietly until a meeting held yesterday warmed the spirit of the bluecoats.

It was said at the meeting that the "cops" were the poorest paid, considering the character of their jobs, of any workers in the city.

[illegible] the demands was unanimously passed by the 125 officers present. They will call the attention of the City Council to the fact that during the industrial trouble several months ago the Lawrence police officers were on duty fourteen to sixteen hours daily without extra compensation.

While there is talk of strike, many of the policemen say they will engage in no such activity, preferring to leave the department and go to other jobs where they claim they will re[illegible]

SOLDIER HAS NO FEAR OF HOODOO NUMBER 13

Lawrence, Aug. 21.—The number thirteen has figured five times in the military career of Harold Duffen of No. 269 North Main street, North Andover. Duffen, who saw some hard fighting with the Marines since the earlier days of the war, states that the so-called Hoodoo number thirteen has abided with him favorably and believes it is as good on the luck as any other.

Here's the record of thirteens: Enlisted, June 13; sailed for overseas, September 13; crossed the Rhine into Germany the thirteenth hour of the thirteenth day of the month; discharged from the Service at Quantico, August 13.

Meats in Storage Not "Hoarded"

Live stock is a seasonal crop—like cereals and grains.

It is "ripe" and is marketed in larger quantities in certain months. This causes a natural oversupply at one time and a natural shortage at another.

During the time of oversupply Swift & Company places some of the meat in cold storage, against the season of short production.

This is a necessity in order that the nation's ration of meat—58,000,000 pounds every day in the year—may be forthcoming as the consumer requires it.

This is not hoarding, not price manipulation, not market control. It is mere common sense.

United States Bureau of Markets' figures of stocks of frozen and cured meats July 1 are being used as a basis for Department of Justice investigations in many cities. When properly analyzed, based on Swift & Company's stocks, these figures show:

62 per cent (approximate) is pork and beef cuts, etc., cured and in process of curing. It takes 30 to 90 days in pickle or salt to complete the curing process.

12 per cent is frozen pork, of which more than three-quarters is to be cured in the next few months.

7 per cent is lard. This is a normal supply and only four-fifths of a pound per capita, and much of it will have to go to supply European needs.

19 per cent is frozen beef and lamb, and miscellaneous meats, part of which is owned by the Government and was intended chiefly for overseas shipment. If this were all diverted to domestic trade channels it would be only 2½ lbs. per capita—a 5 days' supply.

100%

From this it will be seen that "meats in storage" represent unfinished goods in process of curing and the working supply necessary to assure the consumer a steady flow of finished product.

STATE CHAMBER ATTACKS PLAN OF PLUMB

The Massachusetts Chamber of Commerce, formerly the Massachusetts State Board of Trade, has sent the American the following letter, attacking the railroad employes and the so-called Plumb plan.

Secretary L. G. Stacy of this organization, which is composed of a federation of boards of trade, chambers of commerce and other business men's associations, wrote.

Editor Boston American:

The Massachusetts Chamber of Commerce views with grave alarm the demand of the railroad employes that the railroads of the country be nationalized under the so-called Plumb plan.

The situation has been given very serious consideration by our board of directors and I express its views when I say that in our opinion the proposed legislation is vicious to an extreme. Instead of offering a sensible solution for our transportation problem we believe with the Chamber of Commerce of the United States that it would subject the railway system to undesirable political domination and disastrous abandonment of economical and businesslike operation.

OFFERS NO RELIEF.

We believe that the plan offers no relief to an overburdened people, no protection to our rural population, no assistance to industry or business in readjusting itself to bring about the lower cost of living everywhere most earnestly desired, and no relief from the existing vexatious transportation difficulties which hinder the efficient conduct of the vital commerce of the nation.

We believe that the demand of the railroad employes should receive the utmost consideration when temperate and dictated by reason and proper consideration of their effects upon the public as a whole.

POINTS TO RUSSIA.

"The evident purpose of the railroad employes in this instance to coerce our chief lawmaking body into an immediate adoption of the Plumb plan, while pernicious enough in itself, appears and has been so announced as the first step towards nationalization of all industry. The appalling results of this experiment in Russia are sufficient, we hope, to assure the eventual defeat of such extremist ideas in this country, but we believe and shall use our best endeavors to arouse our people to an understanding of the significance of this initial step in that direction.

Enclosed is copy of a pamphlet we are sending to organization members of the Massachusetts Chamber of Commerce. We urge you to bring the matter to the immediate attention of your readers and lose no time in expressing your official views and urging your readers to communicate their individual protests to members of Congress.

Britain Puzzled to Get an Ambassador for New Germany

(Special Cable Dispatch.)

London, Aug. 21.—Britain is finding considerable difficulty in determining on a prospective ambassador to Germany. Appointment of an old-time diplomat, such as Sir Edward Goshen, who served in Berlin for years up to the outbreak of the war, is out of the question, because of the change in Germany. A man with proved democratic leanings or even socialistic tendencies is being sought.

George N. Barnes, minister without portfolio in the War Cabinet, who was one of the British Empire's peace delegates at Paris, was approached, but declined the offer, according to the daily news.

SCHOLARSHIPS ARE OFFERED VETERANS

Free to discharged service men—100 scholarships in the leading colleges and universities in the country.

This is the program of the Knights of Columbus, the scholarships to begin with the Fall term and the beneficiaries to be chosen regardless of creed. The scholarships include not only tuition, but books, board and lodging.

Candidates must file application with the supreme secretary, Knights of Columbus, New Haven, Ct., on or before September 1. Applicants must be prepared to meet the usual qualification tests of the institutions they desire to enter, and in choosing the successful applicants consideration will be given not only to examination marks but to a widespread distribution of the scholarships throughout the country.

The scholarships are divided into two parts, fifty non-sectarian scientific institutions and fifty for Catholic colleges and universities.

In the former class are the University of California, Sheffield Scientific School (Yale), University of Illinois, Purdue University, Louisiana State University, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, University of Minnesota, University of Missouri, Stevens Institute of Technology (Hoboken), Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn, Toledo University, Oregon Agricultural College, University of Pennsylvania, Colorado School of Agriculture, Ohio State University, West Virginia University and Georgetown University Foreign Service School.

400 GRANGERS GATHER AT WRENTHAM TOMORROW

Franklin, Aug. 21.—The annual field day meeting of the Massachusetts State grange with Norfolk grange will be held at Lake Pearl, Wrentham, tomorrow. The local grange has been invited and about 400 grangers are expected. L. R. Smith of Hadley, master of the State grange, will be a speaker.

LOCATE DOCTOR IN WASHBURN MYSTERY

Brockton, Aug. 21.—The Brockton police who have been conducting an investigation at the request of Assistant District Attorney William F. Kane into the movements of Mrs. Hazel B. Washburn, prominent in Brockton society prior to her fatal illness, which was first noted July 20, ending in her death Sunday at the Brockton Hospital, believe they know the doctor who performed an operation on Mrs. Washburn.

The police and district attorney are not yet ready to openly charge the physician under suspicion with having performed an illegal operation which they allege was a contributory cause to death, but it is expected that the evidence the officers will present at the inquest Friday will be sensational and may lead to an arrest.

FAMILY CLAIMS ACCIDENT.

Although Medical Examiner A. E. Paine and the District Attorney are satisfied that an illegal operation had been performed on Mrs. Washburn, her relatives are emphatic in their statements that her condition was not brought about by an operation but by an accident while at her summer home at Point Independence.

Francis B. Washburn, husband of the dead woman, and one of the directors of the F. B. Washburn Co., wholesale bakers and candy manufacturers, told a member of the police department that there was no operation and that the change in this wife's physical condition was caused by an accident.

The other story which has reached the police is that Mrs. Washburn and the former wife of Mr. Washburn, now Mrs. Lillian Burdett Waitt, of Newton and Point Independence, who have been very intimate during the Summer, were skylarking late in July and Mrs. Washburn fell.

DIVORCED ONES CHUMMY.

Mrs. Waitt divorced Mr. Washburn several years ago and married Albert H. Waitt of Newton, wealthy cigar manufacturer. The young woman who died Sunday was married to Mr. Washburn, April 23, 1917.

Early this year there was a break in the Washburn home and separate support proceedings were started, but were later withdrawn and a reconciliation effected.

During the past Summer at Point Independence, where both families have Summer homes, the Waitts and Washburns were very much together, and in fact became very chummy.

About a month ago Mr. Washburn and Mr. Waitt started on a motor boat trip from Boston to Buzzard's Bay and their motor stalled when outside Plymouth and for nearly three days the two men drifted about until they finally landed near Provincetown.

Lexington Memorial, Gift of Sisters in Father's Memory

Lexington, Aug. 21.—By the will of Mrs. Rosa B. Farnum and Miss [illegible] Cary, sisters, the town of Lexington is bequeathed a memorial building in memory of their father, Isaac Harris [illegible], a former resident of this town.

The residue of their estates, amounting to more than $300,000 and possibly $350,000, is left for this and educational purposes.

A committee of fifteen citizens is now considering the matter, and it is proposed to make the building a memorial town hall, as Lexington has long needed a larger town house than the present structure.

Several sites are already under consideration, and a special town meeting will be called by the selectmen early next month to accept the gift and vote on a suitable location for the structure.

Under the will a room is to be provided in the building for the preservation of revolutionary relics and curios, and a hall for nonsectarian meetings, etc., is also to be provided.

SHUBERTS JUMP IN AS SCENE SHIFTERS

By International News Service.

New York, Aug. 21.—A smile of contentment brightened the faces of Lee and J. J. Shubert, theatrical producers, this morning. They had qualified as first-class scene shifters.

When the musicians and stage hands at the Winter Garden joined the actors' strike last night the management was faced with the alternative of closing the house or jumping into the breach themselves.

Peeling off their coats, the Shuberts and other officials of the theatre and seven chorus girls seized the [illegible] ropes controlling the various scenes. In a short time the scenes had been properly placed and the Shuberts wiped perspiration from their dripping brows.

NAMES PETS AFTER NEIGHBOR, STARTS ROW

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 21.—When Mrs. Katherine Dieckmann named her dog and cat "Joe," after Joseph Coyne, her neighbor, ill feeling was engendered, progressing till it reached Judge Mix's division of the city court.

Coyne told of the dog and cat names when he testified on a charge of disturbing Mrs. Dieckmann's peace.

In retaliation, Coyne said, he called the dog and cat "Emil," after Mrs. Dieckmann's husband. He said he had found no way to retaliate against Mrs. Dieckmann for calling to him on the street, "Oh, Joe, have you put the soup on yet?" insinuating that he cooks his own meals.

Mrs. Dieckmann testified that she was cutting the grass in her front yard when Coyne insulted her. He denied the charge but was fined $1[illegible]

Plan Basket Picnic

There will be a basket picnic at Spot Pond for the home garden pupils, parents and friends of Arlington next Tuesday, August 26. Talks on gardening, pigs and poultry will be given during the day by the Middlesex County Bureau.

WIFE'S CONCOCTIONS KILL PETS, HUSBAND DECLARES

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 15.—Becoming suspicious when he saw his first wife [illegible] a mixture of some sort in his [illegible], he sidetracked the cup and tried the secret preparation on some neighborhood pets, with the result that every dog and cat in the vicinity passed peacefully away, L. R. Tyrrell told Judge Pendleton in Superior Court here.

He was given a decree from Mrs. Anna Tyrrell, the suit being uncontested.

ASKS $5,000 DAMAGES AS RESULT OF FLOOD

Charles H. Forsyth of North Reading has been sued for $5,000 by William A. Eisenhauer of North Reading.

He alleges that his property was damaged when a drain on the defendant's land overflowed.

The Home You Wish For and Our Good Furniture

For those who wish to secure the proper type of furniture for their homes, with the assurance that it is trustworthy in every sense, our immense stock should prove highly interesting.

The "atmosphere" of the home depends largely upon the furnishings. Furniture of grace and dignity lends an air of restfulness and refinement. You will find here the kind of furniture you will grow to treasure as the years go by at prices which are very moderate for furniture of such fine quality.

To us the home furnishing business is something more than buying and selling furniture, something more than merchandising. It means the giving of our best to the people who come to us. We look beyond the formality of the business transaction—to the days when the homes are furnished and the goods in use.

Honest Quality is more than a slogan here—we are absolutely sure of the quality and standard of our merchandise. Every piece of furniture is rigidly inspected before it is placed on our floors and it is given a final inspection before it is sent to your home. You can depend on the reliability of this store and merchandise.

SHANTUNG CASE IS TERMED A 'ROBBERY'

Roger Casement Branch Calls Upon Senate to Repudiate Grant

The granting of the Shantung peninsula to Japan was termed a "robbery" and its repudiation by the United States Senate was demanded in resolutions adopted by the Roger Casement Branch, Friends of Irish Freedom, at a meeting in Historical Hall, Deacon building. Copies of the resolution are to be forwarded to Massachusetts Senators and Congressmen.

Other resolutions adopted urged the passage of the Mason resolution providing financial appropriation for diplomatic representatives to Ireland, and protested against the deportation of Hindu patriots as a violation of international law and the rights of asylum.

Speakers in Ireland's cause aroused enthusiasm when they declared that Ireland's day is dawning. Among those who spoke in favor of Irish independence were Thomas W. Kilgannon of the New York branch, Jeremiah Carroll, Michael J. Twomey and Jeremiah C. Crowley.

The resolutions denouncing the Shantung "robbery" were as follows:

"Whereas, the League of Nations now before the United States Senate for adoption proposes to give the Shantung peninsula, one of the richest districts of China, to the Empire of Japan for exploitation, and

"Whereas, China (next to Ireland the most loyal friend we have among the nations), the largest and most important division of the yellow race, is a republic with the United States as its model, and

"Whereas, we have been told a great deal about the 'Yellow Peril,' i. e., about the danger of the yellow peoples overwhelming the white races; therefore be it

"Resolved, we, American citizens, confidently appeal to the Senate to repudiate the Shantung robbery and its betrayal of China. The best way to obviate the 'Yellow Peril' is to keep faith with the republic of China and with ourselves.

"And we further confidently appeal to the Senate to reject any League of Nations which does not fully safeguard American rights, including the Monroe Doctrine, and which also does not fully protect the rights of peoples struggling to be free. We believe, however, that there can be no effective league for the maintenance of peace and justice among nations until imperialism, whose crimes in Egypt, India, Korea and Ireland cry to Heaven for redress, is abolished."

PROBE MYSTERY OF GRAVES IN WOODS

Evidence of Wholesale Illegal Surgical Operations Revealed in East Fairhaven

New Bedford, Aug. 21.—Evidences that illegal operations by the score have been performed in a supposedly deserted farmhouse in a patch of woods at East Fairhaven were uncovered when Walter Almond, chief inspector of police, forced an entrance to the building.

Six graves in a small enclosure about a hundred feet from the house apparently were newly made, and the authorities will have them opened to see what they contain.

HOUSE IN DENSE WOODS.

The building is buried in dense woods more than a mile from any path of travel. No one has been known to live there for a number of years, but the police have reason to believe it has been occupied at a comparatively recent date.

Chief Inspector Almond, with Captain Harry D. Stow and detectives of his staff, broke into it as a result of information furnished them by campers who had entered in the spirit of a lark, but who had fled when they learned what the rooms contained.

The police endeavored, upon their return, to learn who owns the property, but will be unable to do so until they can go through the town records and the registry of deeds.

When the police came to the farm house there was no one in sight. The two doors were nailed shut and all the windows were boarded. The officers lifted off one of the doors with a raiding jack.

EVIDENCES OF A MEAL.

A weird scene greeted them. The building evidently had been occupied very recently, for the dining room table remained just as it had been left after a meal, and some flowers in a vase still were fresh. The rooms were filthy, however, and all manner of refuse littered the floors.

On the floor and in boxes the police discovered a number of surgical instruments, bottles containing alcohol and medicines and several anesthetics. A surgeon's long coat hung in one corner of the room.

Letters and papers were found, but nothing that could be employed to identify the recent occupant of the place was brought to light.

The letters were addressed to persons residing in Philadelphia and Baltimore and were written more than twenty years ago.

Thunderstorm Shocks Paralytic Woman Well Again

North Adams, Aug. 21.—Frightened by a crash of thunder and a bolt of lightning during a thunder storm, Mrs. William Paddock of [illegible], Vt., who had been a paralytic sufferer for over a year, jumped from her chair in the kitchen and walked across the floor.

Since she was stricken with a paralytic shock over a year ago, Mrs. Paddock had been unable to walk without assistance. Since the thunder storm she has regained almost complete use of her lower limbs and is now able to walk unaided.

80 CENTS MORE ON ANDOVER'S TAX RATE

Andover, Aug. 21.—An increase of 80 cents over the present tax rate is announced for this year. The new tax rate is [illegible].

A large tract of land in the Frye Village section of Andover, under development by President William M. Wood of the American Woolen Company, as a residential section, is exempted from taxation, as work was not begun until after April 1.

BERWIN ADMITS 5 BURGLARIES, AND IS JAILED

Police Seek Young Woman, Alleged to Have Been His Accomplice

Harry Berwin, confessed perpetrator of thirty daylight burglaries in Greater Boston, was held in $10,000 for the grand jury in Waltham Court today, after pleading guilty to five breaks in Watertown. In default of bail he was committed to the East Cambridge Jail. Berwin was turned over to the custody of the Watertown police after his arrest in Merrimack square, as Watertown charged him with five breaks, the largest number committed in any one municipality.

Search is being made for a young woman, alleged by the police to have been Berwin's accomplice in committing the breaks. In at least one case, the police say, she did the actual stealing, while Berwin acted as a lookout.

The $15,000 in loot recovered by the police in connection with Berwin's arrest is being held by the authorities, who are endeavoring to locate the owners of it, particularly of property worth $2,000 thought to have been stolen from a fashionable Cambridge apartment.

Berwin, who admits he was recently released from the East Pennsylvania penitentiary after serving eight months, will have to face charges in Cambridge, the Newtons and other places after being tried for the breaks in Watertown.

FIELD'S CORNER FISHING CLUB FIGHTS H. C. L.

In order to reduce the high cost of living to their families a number of residents of the Field's Corner section of Dorchester organized a fishing club known as the Field's Corner Fishing Club and utilize Sundays and holidays in going down the harbor in a chartered motor boat, bringing home a large haul of fish. The members of the club during the fish strike kept their tables well supplied with fish fresh from the water. Next Sunday, as usual, the organization will leave in a body for the fishing grounds. Those interested in the club are: Patrick Callahan, president; James Hennessey, secretary; Eugene Perry, treasurer; John Toland and William Manning.

GIRL'S LETTER STIRS UP LOTS OF 'TONIES'

Soldier She Met in New York With "Prettiest Teeth" Seems to Be Ubiquitous

By Universal Service.

Camp Upton, Aug. 21.—The lovelorn Boston girl who wrote to the commanding general of Camp Upton asking for aid in locating a soldier she had met in New York and knew only as "Tony," described by her to be of medium height, good looking, with small scars on his face and the "prettiest teeth," was rewarded by receiving a stack of letters from a number of men named "Tony."

The commanding general had turned her appeal over to the information bureau of the camp personnel office, which turned it over to newspapers in the hope that publicity would obtain results. Boston papers copied the story and the personnel office was flooded with letters.

The letters have been forwarded to the young lady and she can have her pick of the "Tonies", with the "prettiest teeth." One writes:

"I think, sir, I may possibly be the Tony she is referring to, as that is my name and while I was in New York and stationed at Camp Merritt I met a girl from B—— and was in her company about three hours, and as I am from L—— I was naturally glad to meet her.

"I am past the 'youth age,' medium height and build, certainly have something of a happy-go-lucky disposition; in regard to having the prettiest teeth, while I do not make the claim myself, my friends tell me that in the matter of 'molar equipment' I am well above the average."

NAVY YARD CLERICAL FORCE IS CUT DOWN

A big reduction in the clerical force, both male and female, has been ordered at the Charlestown Navy Yard by Washington naval authorities. The order affects those who have recently been appointed to civil service positions from the service, mostly from the yeoman class. Lack of funds to carry on the work is the reason assigned for the cut.

SIX-YEAR-OLD HIRED AS SNAKE CHARMER

Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 21.—A strange violation of the Child Labor law was revealed here when four owners of a carnival company were charged with employing six-year-old Verba Warneby as a snake charmer. Witnesses testified that the child was placed in a pit with snakes, where, with a stick, she beat them away.

Hot Tea and Frozen Cream Very Constipating

THERE is little inclination for solid food on a hot day. Cold drinks and ices, salads and pastry form much of the diet, especially among women. This lack of wholesome variety, however, interferes with proper digestion.

The result is biliousness, listlessness, dizzy spells. The cause is constipation. The stomach could not digest nor the bowels pass off the day's strange mixture of food and drink.

A simple way of overcoming the trouble is this: If you have not already got Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the house, go to a drug store and buy a 50c or $1 bottle. Take a teaspoonful tonight before you go to bed. It will act in the morning, and immediately thereafter your head will be clear and that feeling of oppression will be gone.

Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. It acts on the stomach-muscles training them to do their work naturally so that medicines can be dispensed with. It is the most widely used laxative compound in the world. That means merit.

A free sample bottle can be had by sending your address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 480 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

GINGHAM DRESSES 2.95

Most of them in plain colors, checks and plaids—some in light and others in effective darker tones that mean less frequent laundering.

These gingham frocks are carefully planned, well made and of good materials.

There are generous hems to allow for growing.

For the younger girls there are bloomer dresses. If your children haven't worn them you have missed the great comfort of fewer petticoats in the wash, no garters showing and of cleaner undergarments.

The dress illustrated is of pink and green plaid, prettily combined with plain pink gingham on the collar and cuffs. There are two pockets for the clean hankies and stub pencils. Sizes 6—14.

AUGUST SMOCKS

Of Organdie, Voile, Ramie Cloth, Crepe, Basket Weave Cheviot

—In fact, all of the prettiest Summer materials in all the prettiest shades, pastels and darker ones, too

The Japanese Crepe smock sketched on the left is especially satisfactory for the vacationer who has omitted to get one before. It can be tucked in at the last moment and no one will be the wiser, for you know it does not muss. The color is rose with round band of white around the neck, white edges the turn-away cuffs and adds a touch to the pockets—but this is not all. The artist has smocked and embroidered it with black, blue and yellow. Sizes 36 to 40. 3.95

The second smock sketched of Beach Cloth in rose or Dutch blue is especially attractive because the round collar, patch pockets and sleeves are finished with effective buttonhole stitch in silk of contrasting color ........................................ 2.50

One All White Smock of Basket Weave Cheviot opens down the front in a good looking coat effect. It has a generous square collar, patch pockets and smocking of white in front............ 2.00

The colors are bewitching. Organdy does come in such pretty shades anyway, and these are especially well chosen and there is such a variety—light blue, flesh, the coolest green, becoming maize and one of crisp white. The square neck and roll collar are beruffled—as are the pockets and cuffs as well.................... 3.50

And here is one of voile—in lavender or sand color—both very popular this Summer. The round collar and turn-back cuffs of white organdy are prettily hand embroidered in two colors. There is a sash—and a jaunty ribbon tie of black................ 3.00

Light-weight Trouville Cloth—this utility smock has style galore. The colors are rose, dark blue and green. It is embroidered in contrasting colors. It slips on in a jiffy, is belted, and the generous pockets have all sorts of room.................... 3.95

And Middies for Camp, School and Gymnasium Wear

Regulation Middies of Lonsdale Jean in all white. One, as you see, has plain square collar, black tie and patent pockets...... 1.75

And, if you prefer one with navy flannel collar and cuffs, we have it. It laces in the front and has a slit pocket........... 2.95
Sizes 16 and up.

Dunn Took $10,000 of Cleveland Stock

By W. S. FARNSWORTH.

New York, Aug. 21.—Boisterous Ban Johnson, the Roaming Czar of Baseball, is to appear before a referee appointed by the Supreme Court of New York tomorrow to answer a number of questions Colonels Ruppert and Huston, owners of the Yankees, are going to ask concerning the affairs of the American League.

[illegible] Who owns stock in the Cleveland [illegible] the writer has learned from [illegible] Comiskey, owner of the White Sox, who took over Charley Somers' stock in the club a few years ago.

Boisterous Ban had just returned to Chicago from a visit to Cleveland. The banks which held Somers' notes refused to extend another dollar to the club. In fact several of the players had gone South at the expense of Lee Fohl, the manager.

Comiskey and Johnson had been in session [illegible] Fisher building in Chicago [illegible] willing to [illegible] But [illegible] Johnson promised [illegible] would within 30 days get somebody to take up the Chicago magnate's holding.

OVER "THE MAHOGANY."

[illegible] men reached the same [illegible] Johnson and Comiskey started for the [illegible]

[illegible] a contractor named Jim Dunn.

"Jim," asked Boisterous Ban, "how would you like to get into baseball?"

"Great!" came back the contractor.

"And so would I," remarked Burns, the cafe owner.

"All right," said Boisterous Ban, "you both can buy stock in the Cleveland club."

"I'll take $15,000 worth," said Burns.

"Put me down for $10,000," said the contractor.

And thus it was that Jim Dunn became an "owner" of the Cleveland club.

[illegible] Johnson made Dunn the president [illegible]

ALL READY FOR KLOBY-SHEVLIN BATTLE

By JACK CONWAY.

All attendance records for boxing bouts in New England are expected to be shattered when Young Kloby, Y. D. champion, and Eddie Shevlin of Roxbury clash in their twelve-round bout at O'Sullivan Park, Lawrence, Saturday afternoon.

There will be accommodations for [illegible] fans. Billy Bell, who is promoting the show, says it will be possible to care for as many as 25,000 if that many desire to witness the [illegible].

There will be close to 2,000 ringside seats. There will be seats for several thousands in the grand stand. Then there are the bleachers and the standing room, which is also [illegible].

The bout has plenty of color. It is for the welterweight championship of New England. It is also a battle between the Army and Navy. Kloby will represent the doughboys, while Shevlin will battle for the [illegible] fans.

EVERYTHING IS READY.

Everything is ready for the big bout. There will not be any eleventh hour [illegible] over the referee or anything [illegible].

[illegible] Magee of Lawrence will be the [illegible] in the ring. Billy Henderson, manager for Shevlin, agreed [illegible] club official to [illegible]. He has posted $750 that [illegible] by all his agreements. [illegible] named Magee as referee [illegible] must accept him or forfeit [illegible].

If [illegible] Henderson had any objection to Magee, or any man whom the [illegible] might select, his time for [illegible] was before the articles for the [illegible] were signed and he [illegible] to post $750. The money [illegible] been put up.

The writer has a copy of the articles [illegible]. There is no reference [illegible] regard to the referee [illegible] without exception [illegible] single clause in the entire agreement.

NO GOOD PROTEST.

Later, while in the presence of the writer, he posted $700 of his forfeit money and stated he would accept Magee as referee. He added, however, that he did this under protest. As he had already signed the articles of agreement, his statement of "under protest" was of no weight.

[illegible] Magee has proved a competent referee. He takes the stand that [illegible] third man [illegible] says Bell [illegible] to produce a man [illegible] of giving a decision.

"I am not looking for any advantage," said Bell. "Magee is honest, knows the boxing game and will do the right thing. There have been a whole lot of questionable decisions given by some of our so-called major league referees. I don't want any of [illegible] of things at Lawrence."

KLOBY AFTER KAYO.

[illegible] will get the decision [illegible] the first [illegible] I don't think the [illegible] will be obliged to render a [illegible]. Kloby intends to try for a knockout [illegible] hit harder than any welterweight in the world and [illegible] to send Shevlin to the mat [illegible] before the halfway post has been reached."

For the benefit of the fans they may [illegible] reservations in Lawrence at [illegible] Transfer Station [illegible] McDonough's [illegible] Billy Bell [illegible]. Bobby [illegible] has tickets at Lowell [illegible] Thorndike Hotel at [illegible] J. Darling at Derry [illegible].

A representative of the Lawrence Club will be on hand at the Commercial Club Friday evening and tickets may be secured from him.

STAR ATHLETES ENTERED IN TITLE MEET

The New England championships which will take place Saturday afternoon at Tech Field, Cambridge, will have the cream of this section of the country entered.

The B. A. A., St. Alphonsus Club and the West End House will have the biggest number of representatives, with the Exeter street club leading.

The B. A. A. has over 35 men entered in the meet, and will be well represented in all the events, so that a good many of the New England champs for the year will undoubtedly hail from the Exeter street club.

Bill Hayes, the Notre Dame star, and the former St. John's runner, will wear the colors of the B. A. A. for the first time. Hayes has been entered in the 100 and the 220, and if he runs true to form he will, without doubt, make a very successful debut.

There is quite a classy list of entries in the quarter mile, and Carl Dudley Jr., the former Latin School runner, Jake Driscoll, Billy Meanix and Galvin Bandon, the M. I. T. star, will make the competition strong and with favorable conditions would not cause any excitement if one of them set up a new record for the [illegible].

Ray Robertson of the [illegible] Y. M. C. A. is also entered in this event but will have a tough [illegible] with all the class up against him.

CONNELLY THE FAVORITE.

Jimmy Connelly will go to the mark in two events, the half mile and mile, and although he will have plenty of competition against him in both events he has shown before that he has the stuff to win from all comers in this neck of the country.

Connelly's fame is not confined to only this section of the country. He has traveled quite [illegible] was shown by the invitation [illegible] received from the [illegible] the Sears-Roebuck athletic meet, to compete in Chicago next Saturday.

The three mile run has [illegible] entries, of which only two are from the B. A. A. [illegible] and Harry Weeks will wear the [illegible]. The Dorchester Club is well represented in this event, having [illegible] George Costarick [illegible] and the Doherty brothers [illegible].

[illegible] W. A. [illegible] Club of Quincy [illegible] Worcester and [illegible] complete the list of [illegible] the three mile honors.

STARS IN NOVICE EVENTS

Walter Whalen, the star high jumper of the Exeter street club, will compete in the running broad jump in addition to his favorite event, the high jump.

Harry Barwise and [illegible] of the English [illegible] team last year [illegible] Whalen [illegible] some of his good [illegible].

There will be two novice events, the 100 and 220, and there is a [illegible] field entered in both races. [illegible] Kyle, member of last year's [illegible] track team at Boston Latin School, will be in both events and should make a good showing. As yet there are only five entered in the [illegible] hundred and seven in the furlong.

The management of the [illegible] games at the Brockton Fair, which take place Thursday, [illegible] has announced that there will be five prizes in each event [illegible] instead of the usual three.

There will be a ten-mile race on the horse-racing track in the evening starting at seven. There will be ten prizes awarded in this event.

When Your Eyes Fail

By Brice Belden, M. D.

THE commonest symptom of eyestrain is headache, but there are some results which are interesting to eye specialists and to the [illegible] the way [illegible] conscious of the [illegible] between their old troubles [illegible] eyes.

Eyestrain sometimes evidences itself [illegible] dizziness or definite [illegible] sickness (sometimes [illegible] sickness, [illegible] of moving pictures [illegible] of floating [illegible] such as the waving of the sidewalk [illegible] and [illegible] movement of the [illegible] of a [illegible] lighted [illegible] glare of the sun on the snow or on the water, discomfort caused by certain color combinations or patterns such as pronounced stripes in a wall paper, dizziness [illegible] in a crowd, insomnia in some cases and drowsiness in others and a sense of objects receding from the observer.

Eyestrain [illegible] certain fears [illegible] due to defective [illegible] in certain instances. If you are afraid to run on a stone wall or [illegible] plank over a brook, or over a railroad bridge on the ties, the trouble probably lies with your vision.

If you would be afraid to [illegible] on the rafters of a house [illegible] pretty safe to say [illegible] eyesight rather than real cowardice accounts for your fear.

People who are afraid to look down from a high point or to walk on the edge of a height are usually victims of untrustworthy eyes. When we walk on a broad smooth sidewalk it makes little difference just where the feet are placed [illegible] few inches difference in the length or width of our step is [illegible] important.

But when we are at a height there is a sense that the feet must be accurately placed [illegible] Hence there is fear if there is any distrust of the eyes. This distrust may exist only in the subconscious mind, so fear is then the only [illegible] which nature can [illegible] us warning.

The fear of crossing an open square or a street, if the street is a busy one, is also frequently due to defective vision.

David DeLaine, War Hero, Is Left a Fortune by His Aunt's Will Provided He Marries the Girl of Her Choice

By Virginia Terhune Van de Water

CHAPTER XLIV.

At last when she had dropped five stitches in as many minutes, she laid down her work.

"Father," she began.

"Yes?" Her father looked at her inquiringly. "What is it, my dear?"

"I was wondering," the girl confessed, "if you would mind telling Smith that you want him to take the place of butler tonight."

Her father laughed. "I declare you [illegible] scared at the prospect. [illegible] if you wish. [illegible] have to give him full instructions as to what his duties will be."

"Very well," the girl agreed faintly as she heard a ring at the front door.

"Tell Smith to come in here," Mr. Leighton said to Annie when she announced the chauffeur's arrival.

"Good morning, sir," David said [illegible] acknowledgment of his employer's greeting. [illegible] glance at [illegible] Miss Leighton.

David Astonished

[illegible] Samuel Leighton explained the predicament they found themselves [illegible].

"There is but one way out of the difficulty, Smith [illegible] that you act as butler this evening."

[illegible] taken [illegible] off his guard.

[illegible]

Desiree glanced anxiously at her father. If Samuel Leighton saw [illegible] instead of [illegible] him to drop the matter [illegible].

[illegible] That is what I mean. Surely you would not object to helping Miss Leighton [illegible] like this. It is not much to ask, but if you feel that this is not your work I will pay you extra for your time this evening."

David flushed with vexation.

"You misunderstand me, sir," he said coldly. "I am willing to do any work that Miss Leighton desires."

"Then why did you appear so startled at any suggestion?" the older man questioned.

David DeLaine was now thoroughly master of himself.

"I was surprised, sir, and very uncertain as to what kind of a butler I would make. I can drive a car, but I have not had practice in passing dishes."

His [illegible] explanation brought an answering gleam to Mr. Leighton's stern face.

"So that was why you seemed so put out, was [illegible]?" he said. "Well, I guess you'll get on all right. Miss Leighton will tell you just what your duties will be for the evening. But first of all you must hire a dress suit."

"I have one, sir," David began, then checked himself.

But he was too late. His employer had heard what he said.

"You have a dress suit?" he repeated.

"Yes, sir." DeLaine must think fast if he would not betray himself. "That is, I know where I can get one from a friend—that is—without hiring it at a public place. Excuse me, sir, if I say so—but I do not just fancy the idea of wearing a suit that's hired and has been worn by people of all kinds."

Out of the Woods

"I quite understand your reluctance," Samuel Leighton admitted. "Are you sure your friend will lend you his suit?"

"Yes, I am sure he will," David said. "He's a willing kind of chap—and he has no need for his suit these days. He's changed his occupation," he added by way of explanation.

"Oh, I see—he's given up the waiter's job," Mr. Leighton observed. "Then if his clothes fit you get them by all means. If you have to hire them from your friend, let me know how much they cost."

"I don't think he'll charge me anything, thanks," David replied.

Samuel Leighton was not an imaginative man, neither did he have the intuition peculiar to women. Therefore it never occured to him that David was concealing anything from him.

But Desiree was sure that David was keeping something back. Why had he said at first that he had a dress-suit, later speaking of it as belonging to a friend?

Perhaps he had been a butler before he went into the service. If so, he was very foolish not to be ashamed of it. There was nothing disgraceful in it. Yet she could not think of Smith as a butler.

But she must think of him in that capacity now, for it devolved on her to explain to him what his duties would be for this evening.

Her embarrassment lessened as she talked to him about the preparations. The refreshments would not be served until late in the evening. The cook and Annie would bring them to the pantry. Smith and Annie must pass them to the guests in the dining room.

When she had assigned his duties to him, Smith made a request.

"Miss Leighton," he said, "I will be glad to wait on the table. But might Annie open the front door for the guests?"

Desiree was puzzled, but she agreed to this arrangement.

"Thank you," David murmured. "I [illegible] take a lot of [illegible], you know."

[illegible]

Desiree mused when he had gone. "It seems strange that [illegible] should object to opening the front door to admit people whom he does not know. I suppose [illegible] of his, and I am perfectly willing to humor it, since [illegible] as he goes."

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

THIS is the caution applied to the public announcement of Castoria that has been manufactured under the supervision of Chas. H. Fletcher for over 30 years—the genuine Castoria. We respectfully call the attention of fathers and mothers when purchasing Castoria to see that the wrapper bears his signature in black. When the wrapper is removed the same signature appears in red on both sides of the bottle. Parents who have used Castoria for their little ones in the past years need no warning against counterfeits and imitations, but our present duty is to call the attention of the younger generation to the great danger of introducing spurious medicines into their families.

It is to be regretted that there are people who are now engaged in the nefarious business of putting up and selling all sorts of substitutes, or what should more properly be termed counterfeits, for medicinal preparations not only for adults, but worse yet, for children's medicines. It therefore devolves on the mother to scrutinize closely what she gives her child. Adults can do that for themselves but the child has to rely on the mother's watchfulness.

New York Sub-Treasury Gain

New York, Aug. 21.—The sub-treasury gained $486,000 from the banks on Wednesday, making the cash net gain since Friday $5,909,000.

PRICES LOWER ON BOSTON EXCHANGE

Recessions the Rule at the Opening and During Forenoon

At the opening the Boston market was weak, almost all active stocks beginning at a decline. Among those to recede the most at the start or later in the morning were Mohawk, American Sugar, American Woolen preferred, Boston Elevated, Fairbanks and Torrington. They were off from one to three points.

Issues to advance during the morning were Swift & Co., Root & Van-Dervoort, Mayflower, Old Colony, Carson Hill, National Leather and Davis Daly.

Before noon Swift & Co. had lost all of its advance and was showing a fractional loss, while Root & Van-Dervoort had also weakened.

Parrish and Bingham was traded in for the first time on the Boston Stock Exchange and opened at 34½. This was ¼ lower than its closing price on the Boston Curb. It recovered and showed again during the first hour, but reacted later.

Coppers were dull and ruled lower. They grew weaker during the forenoon.

The committee on commission has fixed the commission on Swift & Company "Rights" to subscribe to shares of the National Leather Company at 25 cents; floor brokerage five cents.

BOSTON FINANCIAL NOTES.

The United Fruit Company has called all outstanding Nipe Bay Company first mortgage 5 per cent. bonds due May, 1925. Lee, Higginson & Company will pay 102½ for bonds redeemed before November 1 and 102⅛ after November 1, on which date interest ceases.

In a circular to stockholders dealing with the segregation of Swift and Company's tanning and leather business, Secretary Hayward says: "It is expected that the National Leather Company will pay dividends yielding a return equal to dividends now paid by Swift and Company."

CALUMET AND HECLA AGAIN PAYS DIVIDEND

The Calumet and Hecla Mining Company has resumed dividends, directors having declared one of $5 a share (No. 185), which is payable Sept. 29 to stock of record Aug. 25.

The latest previous declaration by this company was $15 a share, declared in December last.

Today's declaration makes a total of $1,544 a share, or $150,250,000 since the beginning.

Why Dividend Was Passed

The reason assigned for the passing of the regular quarterly dividend of the Porto Rican American Tobacco Company is labor troubles lasting for the first six months of the year and which tied up all of the corporation's plants at Porto Rico. Since August 1 the company has been operating its plants at capacity.

Copper Production in June

The copper production of seventeen large producers in June totaled 78,018,000 pounds, compared with 77,-093,000 in May. These mines represent 75 per cent. of the present productive capacity of this hemisphere. The output is not more than 60 per cent. of that for a corresponding 1918 period.

STEEL COMMON FIRM DURING FORENOON

Motors, Rubbers and Leathers Recede—Big Loss by Texas Co.

By W. H. ROSS.
Financial Editor.

Stocks were weak in New York at noon, with motors, rubbers and leathers conspicuous in the decline. U. S. Steel had been firm during the morning. Trading was more active than yesterday. After opening lower the market improved during the first hour, but was no better than irregular at its best. In the second hour prices were at their lowest. There was a rallying tendency just before noon. Foreign exchange quotations were higher, demand sterling opening at 4.16¾ and cables at 4.17. Demand soon advanced to 4.17¾. The opening call rate was 5 per cent.

Among issues to recede the most during the morning were Kelly Springfield, Keystone, which sold at its year's lowest, American Ice, Tobacco Products, Sumatra, Chandler, Texas Co., U. S. Rubber and Industrial Alcohol. They lost from three to eleven points, Texas Co. declining the most. So-called standard stocks showed more strength than specialties.

By noon U. S. Steel was up ½ at 99. Its range had been from 98⅝ to 99⅝. General Motors was off 2½ at 212 and Studebaker 2⅝ at 93⅝.

WEAK AT THE OPENING.

The majority of stocks opened at declines. Outsiders sold. They are alarmed at the prospect that steel workers will strike and stop operation of the country's greatest industry. This would retard building work and affect almost every kind of business. Prosperity of the nation depends in a large degree upon steel. This industry was steadily improving. It was expected that before the end of the year most of its plants would be working at capacity. Manufacturers have sought to keep product prices down in order to stimulate building construction and railroad improvements. They have earnestly maintained that they could not advance wages without raising the price of all kinds of steel. The outlook for the steel trade is now rather dubious.

STEELS GAIN AT START.

Steel issues, which led the Wednesday decline, rallied a little at the start today. Among issues to show largest initial losses were Atlantic Gulf, Bethlehem B, Central Leather, General Motors, Goodrich, Keystone, Tobacco Products and Virginia Carolina Chemical. They receded from about a point to more than two. Sumatra sold at its year's lowest. Covering of shorts influenced a number of stocks in early trading, but the market was without strong support from any quarter. Sentiment in trading circles was despondent. Higher up it is said to be less hopeful. Big and little interests now fear the labor situation is reaching a stage where it will clog business.

The weakness of foreign exchange is militating against the expansion of foreign trade. Great hopes had been entertained of finding a world-wide market for American goods and materials. Inability of foreigners to finance purchases is a high barrier. It may be that Europe will live from "hand-to-mouth" until it is able by frugality and intensive production to creep upward to normal existence.

After feeding and clothing Europe in its hour of stress and increasing their own living costs by both business and benevolence, Americans will learn perhaps that gratitude has yet to become a factor in international trade.

COPPER MARKET SHOWS A LITTLE MORE LIFE

Although remaining very dull, there is a shade more animation to the copper market. Speculators and other "outside" interests have little metal left at their disposal and this has resulted in firmer prices for the supply at their command. While some copper has been sold for nearby delivery at 23 cents a pound, they are now asking 23½ cents for future deliveries. Producers are firm as to prices. They hope for more demand in the Autumn. Consumers are said to be well stocked up for next month.

Regarding the foreign situation, it is stated that Germany has begun to sell copper-carrying equipment in Scandinavian countries and Holland, and advances are being made in those countries to Germany on future deliveries of machinery and brass products.

CHAIN STORES ARE GROWING IN NUMBER

"Chain stores" are a modern business idea and their success is proved by their growth in number and in trade. Retail stores have always reflected prosperity of the people.

On March 1 the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company was operating 3,528 stores, and in June Woolworth & Co. had 1,056 retail establishments in this country and more than 100 in England; United Cigar Stores numbered 990, besides 101 agencies; the Jewel Tea Company had 530 branches, the Jones Bros. Tea Company, 332 stores; J. C. Penney Company, 197; S. S. Kresge, 171, and S. H. Kress, 144 stores.

Chinese Have German Dyes

At the beginning of the war, according to a report by A. W. Pontius, American consul at Canton, Chinese speculators were quick to buy all the German dyes they could obtain, and when further supply was cut off made enormous profits. It is said that German dyes of the minimum value of $200,000 to $250,000 local currency ($100 in Hong Kong currency is equivalent to about $78 United States currency) are still held by Cantonese merchants. Even at the present time there are considerable quantities of German dyes in Honk Kong, Wuchow, Shanghai and other large Chinese cities.

Oil Production This Year

Crude oil production in the United States during the first half of 1919 totaled 176,780 barrels. At this rate production for the full year should be 353,560,000 barrels. But if this is accomplished it will not meet demand. Consumption last year amounted to 395,000,000 barrels, or 55,000,000 barrels more than was brought to the surface. Consumption has been at a greater ratio so far in 1919, it is understood.

City Loans

Quincy has awarded to Blake Brothers & Company a loan of $100,000 dated August 19 and maturing August 18, 1920, at 4.55 per cent. discount.

Waltham has awarded a loan of $200,000, dated August 21 and maturing January 9, 1920, to Salomon Brothers & Hutzler, at 4.47 per cent. discount, plus $5 premium. Wise, Hobbs & Arnold bid 4.60 per cent. for $100,000.

Northbridge, Mass., will receive bids until 10 a. m. August 27, for $60,000 4½ per cent. sewer bonds, dated September 1, and payable $5,000 September 1, 1920-1931, inclusive.

Methuen, Mass., will receive bids until 10 a. m. August 26, for $30,000 4½ per cent. macadam pavement bonds, dated September 2 and payable $6,000 on September 1, 1920-1924, inclusive.

Peabody, Mass., has sold to Salomon Brothers & Hutzler at 4.49 per cent. discount, plus $2 premium, a temporary loan of $75,000, dated August 15 and maturing February 3, 1920.

Cotton Market Opened Steady

New York, Aug. 21.—The cotton market opened steady, 8 to 15 points higher. After the start New Orleans was a buyer, but local offerings supplied the demand. At the end of fifteen minutes the market was nervous and unsettled at a net decline of about 3 points. Opening prices were: Aug., 29.80 bid; Oct., 30.39; Dec., 30.71; Jan., 30.40; March, 30.52; May, 30.48.

Chicago Grain Market

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Corn opened unchanged to ¼c higher; oats were unchanged, while provisions opened higher. Opening prices were: Corn—Sept., 1.84½ to 1.84⅞; Dec., 1.43½ to 1.44; May, 1.37¾ to 1.38¼. Oats, Sept., 73; Dec., 75½. Lard, Sept., 28.80; Oct., 28.70. Ribs, Sept., 24.70.

Cuban American Sugar declared regular quarterly dividends of 2½ per cent. on common stock and 1¾ per cent. on preferred, payable September 30 to stock of record September 15.

PROHIBITION INCREASES SUGAR CONSUMPTION

Prohibition is verifying predictions that it would increase sugar consumption. Domestic demand for the first half of 1919 amounted to 2,110,000 tons, compared with 1,952,000 for the corresponding 1918 period. This is largely due to expansion of the "soft drink" trade.

Sugar refineries are in receipt of inquiries for large amounts of sugar from manufacturers of mild beverages. The consumption of candy is on the increase also.

Wall Street Briefs

Directors of the Ajax Rubber Company have authorized the issuance of 30,000 shares of treasury stock to be offered to stockholders for subscription at $70 a share. Proceeds will be used in enlarging the company's business. Prichitt & Company have underwritten this issue.

The protective committee for the International Traction Company 6 per cent. three-year gold notes due 1920, states that through its efforts the interest on the notes which became due February 1, and August 1, 1919, together with 6 per cent. interest on coupons up to September 2, 1919, will be paid at the office of the Bankers' Trust Company in New York.

The Guaranty Trust Company of New York and the National City Company have underwritten an offering to stockholders of $9,-800,000 6 per cent. preferred stock of the Proctor & Gamble Company of Cincinnati.

Control of the American Vanadium Company has been acquired by Allan A. Ryan & Company, bankers. Associated with Ryan & Company are Charles M. Schwab, J. Leonard Replogle; E. R. Tinker, vice-president of the Chase National Bank; Joseph DeWycoff and Ledyard C. Cogeswell, an Albany banker.

Henry Evans has resigned from the board of American Hide & Leather Company. He has disposed of his holdings of stock in the company.

Chandler & Company, Inc., announce that in addition to the 31,154 Cramp shares and voting trust certificates already acquired by American Ship and Commerce Corporation, there are 9,088 shares in process of exchange which will give them over 40,000 shares, or about two-thirds interest. The book value of this asset on December 31, 1918, exclusive of good-will, was in excess of $10,000,000.

Dividend Declarations

Mergenthaler Linotype Company declared regular quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent, payable September 30 to stock of record September 3.

Ajax Rubber Company declared regular quarterly dividend of $1.50, payable September 15 to stock of record August 30.

Congoleum Company, Inc., declared a dividend at rate of 7 per cent. per annum on first preferred stock covering period from July 3, 1919, to August 31, 1919, payable September 1 to stock of record August 29.

Union Bag & Paper Corporation declared regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent., payable September 15 to stock of record September 5.

South Penn Oil Company declared regular quarterly dividend of $5, payable September 30 to stock of record September 12.

State to Debate Spreading Street Car Service Costs

A former Governor of Massachusetts, Mr. Foss, is a candidate for re-election on the platform of public ownership of all trolley lines at a five-cent fare, the deficit, if any, to be met by general taxation.

We have here the first tangible beginning of a movement to bring into practical public debate the question whether the fare-payer should pay all of the cost of his transport.

It is not so one-sided a question as many Americans have assumed.

When a person is carried from his home to his work or his play, it is, of course, clear to all that he is benefited. A street car strike swiftly emphasizes how much.

We have organized most of our transport facilities on the theory that he should pay all the bill, including a profit to private ownership.

The most conspicuous exception is the passenger elevator in the office building, where the service to the passenger is free and the payment falls on society at large—first on the landlord, then on the tenant and through him on the rest of mankind.

But it takes only a moment of thinking to realize that the benefit of a street car ride is not confined to the passenger.

The man he works for is benefited, also. So is the consumer of the product of the industry in which he toils. So, likewise, is the community in which he lives, especially if a low fare enables him to escape overcrowded tenements, where diseases breed.

Perhaps most of all the trader in real estate benefits, for it is the certainty of frequent and speedy transit which enables him to buy unimproved land cheap and sell it for building purposes at a large advance.

The passenger pays the cost of his transport when he deposits his fare; and when rent day comes he pays a premium to his landlord. There are, of course, other recipients of the benefits of quick local transportation of passengers.

All merchants benefit by the spread of population within easy access to their places of business.

All professional men, also.

In fact, everybody.

Yet under our habitual system, only the fare-payer pays.

The other beneficiaries naturally want him to continue to pay, though they are quick to murmur if their own share of the benefits is abridged.

Now there would be a good business precedent—the passenger elevator in the office building—in the fare-payer's behalf if he were to ask for a car service based entirely on general taxation, as we base public education, fire protection, policing and the like.

It would be "socialistic," to be sure; but not more so than the free elevator in the office building, the free service of the firemen or police, the free tuition in the public school.

But outside of one community in Massachusetts—Lynn—there has, so far as we know, never been a considerable demand for fareless street cars. And Lynn, though debating it, has not yet voted upon it.

The campaign proposal of former Governor Foss, however, brings forward on a large scale the question of undertaking a step in this direction.

If the "shrinking nickel" of the fare-payer in a crisis of high prices is not sufficient to cover transport costs, Mr. Foss says he would assess the remainder of the costs upon the other beneficiaries.

And to make sure that those costs were accurately computed he would put the transport systems under public ownership, so that no private interest would have so easy a chance as in the past to exploit them.

In most States a campaign issue of this nature would not go far, because, however the people might vote, constitutional and other difficulties would prevent action.

But Massachusetts, thanks chiefly to the Boston American, has the initiative and referendum, by which even its constitution can be amended rather easily when the people so desire.

Therefore, Massachusetts presents a favorable field for the launching of Mr. Foss' theory. It is gridironed by trolley lines which even 8 and 10 cent fares are unable to lift out of the bog. It has a population only a minority of whom are congenitally scared by new ideas.

Mrs. Housewife Can Help

Copyright, 1919, Star Company.

The government is beginning a campaign against profiteering.

Its agents have been ordered to do what they can to bring down the cost of living.

There are marked legal limitations as to what these agents can do.

They are not able at once to seize the profiteer and rush him off to jail, where, of course, he deserves to go.

Moral suasion, argument and a variety of the softer and less drastic means will first be used to cure the abuses from which you and your pocketbook are suffering.

But without the aid of any government agent you, Mrs. Housewife, have a very effective weapon in your own hands.

If you believe that your grocer or your butcher or anybody else is trying to get too great a profit from you quit trading with him and go to a merchant whose business methods are fair.

Nothing will so quickly discourage the profiteer as the loss of business. No business, no profits.

You may have to walk a block to save the nickel, but after you and your neighbors have done it a few times Mr. Profiteer will cut his prices, and you can save the walk and the nickel, too.

The beauty of this plan is that it doesn't require any legislation or agents, it works quick and it is effective.

Disabled Veteran's Story

Editor Boston American: In reading the Sunday Advertiser I saw a page that was taken up by Mr. Power of your paper in flaying the "Federal Board" and War Risk Insurance Department, and, as one of the wounded men, with one hundred per cent. disability, I will back up Mr. Power in his bringing to light injustice to my so-called helpers to the wounded.

As it happened to be, Mr. Power was the man who had my case at Parker Hill Hospital No. 10 when I was getting ready to leave for my home. It was through him that I was sent to the Federal Board to start training; but I have never been able to stick it out on account of my wounds. I sure have had my trouble with both of those so-called helpers to the wounded.

I was discharged in April, and had to wait until June for my money, or so-called compensation. I have a wife and four months' old baby to support, and you know what that means to a man with a total disability who is unable to work. If it hadn't been for the Red Cross, my wife, baby and I would have starved to death, but I will say that Mr. McLeod of the Federal Board of Boston, when I was in need, dug down in his pocket and sent me money for my family. He is the only one of the good ones in the Federal Board. The rest are hard to find.

It was just the other day that I was in the same office that a doctor, who is employed there, passed this remark in front of me: "If it was not for these ——— liars coming in here, we would not have to be here." It made my blood boil, but, being used to army discipline, I said nothing.

That is what we are up against. It was only a short time ago that I dropped unconscious in Central square, Cambridge, from my wound. I laid four weeks in the Cambridge Relief Hospital. Neither the War Risk nor Federal Board would pay my bill, which was one hundred dollars. The Red Cross came to my rescue and paid it.

I could write all day of some of the things that have been pulled on me, but I know that I have said enough, and I hope and pray that the Boston American will go through with this, like they have in the past with anything concerning the welfare of a service man. I thank you.

Yours truly,
CAVALRYMAN.

Red Tape Victim

Editor Boston American: I cannot resist the temptation to commend you on your Sunday article, "Is the government breaking promises to her soldiers?" It was sure a dandy article, and your suggestion that an investigation into the federal vocational bureau affairs be conducted is a mighty good one and one that should be followed.

To explain my interest: On June 19, 1918, I received a severe gassing while on duty with the Twenty-sixth Division in the La Rine-Boucq sector. This caused my being in hospitals until August 20. Being marked unfit for further duty in the trenches, I was sent from the replacement camp at St. Aignan, an awful mudhole, to Paris, for duty. My health getting worse, I was finally invalided home, but, on the way, contracted influenza.

At Camp Devens I was marked 10 per cent. disabled and recommended for vocational training. (I had left school to enlist with the One Hundred and First Field Signal Battalion, Twenty-sixth Division, in 1917.)

On July 31, 1919, after several months of waiting, I received some compensation money and a letter suggesting I apply for vocational training, something I had done almost four months before. At Devens I put in an application in May. I received notice to put in another; my first one was mislaid. In July a letter came suggesting I try for special training. August brought a letter requesting me to appear before the board's doctor, at the Little building, for a physical examination. Here I was marked 25 per cent. disabled.

I may say that the local board has recommended me to Washington for vocational training several times, but the main board at Washington objects. Mr. Bowser of the Boston board has had my case and is untiring in his efforts to start something in my behalf.

Sincerely,
A SIGNAL MAN.
August 18, 1919.

THE MASTER CRIMINAL ARRIVES IN U. S.

Daring Exploits Told in Next Boston Sunday Advertiser

THE master criminal has come to light in America at last!

In foreign countries and in our own fiction he is a familiar figure. He has always directed his activities exclusively against banks and national treasure houses. In America he preys upon stores—and finds it even more profitable.

For in one month New York stores lost the tidy sum of $3,000,000 through his machinations.

Jimmies, revolvers and nitroglycerine are the favorite implements of the "master mind" of fiction. This modern American edition limits his equipment to a few beautiful women, a parlor maid or two and a few expensive limousines. And Manhattan's exclusive clothing shops fall all over themselves in their efforts to donate expensive finery to his fast increasing store.

On Sunday the Advertiser will print the first installment of a series of weekly articles dealing with the carefully planned coups of this interesting person. It will continue for several weeks.

You read and enjoyed the Advertiser's exposure of the real story of the Billie Carleton murder mystery.

This coming series is at least as good. Personally, we think it is better. But that is for you to decide.

Did you know that the winsome model who charms the hearts of gown buyers the country over with her pretty poses is soon to become a thing of the past?

As a matter of fact she has already passed out of existence in several smart costume establishments.

Do the buyers miss her? Not at all, although they may wonder why she is so cold and lacking in coquetry? For be it known, automatic models, walking, moving marionettes are now the ultra fashionable agents for the display of clothing. They don't eat, strike, or stay out nights; always do as they are told, never chew gum or make any of the other little faux pas for which models of the past were often shown the door by Madame.

No one knows what the buyers will do for dinner companions when the fad becomes an established custom everywhere. However that may be, the facts to date are presented, with interesting photographs, in the Advertiser's magazine section next Sunday.

Romances come and divorces follow. Every now and then there comes to light a love story of the regulation type which almost seems too good to be true—the wealthy, debonair young hero; the simple country lass; the wedding in secret; the parental wrath; the cutting off of the allowance; disillusionment, and finally tragedy—that is the usual course of events.

But the story which we want you to read in Sunday's magazine section branches off from the accepted path at the point where the allowance stops. Disillusionment, tragedy? Not at all. Instead, a trip to Mexico and a battle of two brave young people to make good in spite of the obstacles thrown in their way by unappreciative parents.

MEN WHO HAVE THEIR CLOTHES PRESSED

Don't get careless about the sort of clothing you wear.

You should dress in accordance with your line of work, but this does not mean there is any excuse for ragged, filthy clothes.

Many men, a few years after marriage, become so negligent that they do not make any effort, even after work, to look tidy.

Some men occupying positions which would enable them to wear fairly good clothes, without being extravagant, seldom think of having them cleaned and pressed.

A man usually feels and thinks according to his clothes.

The fancy, fastidious dresser is rather light weight somewhere.

But the clean man, clean in body and clean in soul, should like clean clothes, and will try to keep them so.

If spots are allowed to accumulate on clothing and dust settles in the spots it shortens the life of good clothes.

Experiments with tramps have shown that when fitted out with good clothing they walk and act differently, have more confidence, and if not too far gone desire to procure employment and improve their position.

No matter what your work, keep your clothes as clean as you can and in repair.

Tame Lions, Wild Women
We Crave the Strange
In Her Husband's Pocket
The Lady Mosquito Bites

By Arthur Brisbane

(Copyright, 1919.)

Good-bye to daylight saving. The farmers didn't want it, and it ends. This teaches us that when they choose to unite, the farmers are a powerful element in the country.

It also teaches that the governing mind is not elastic. It ought to have been possible to let workers in cities begin work one hour earlier, saving an hour of daylight later, without forcing farmers to get up two hours before daylight by changing all their milk trains. The most valuable institution goes overboard for lack of co-ordination.

Why does the human heart always crave something unnatural? The Romans wanted naval battles right in their own town, and the Emperor had to give them an artificial lake with ships and fighting on it to amuse them.

The prosperous gentleman wants strawberries in Winter. Pays little attention to them in Summer.

These solemn reflections are inspired by a line in an advertisement by Mr. Fox, theatrical man. He announces a magnificent production, "Tame Lions and Wild Women." It is the nature of women to be tame and of lions to be wild. But human nature wants things upside down, so the theatrical man must find lions tame and women wild to please the public.

---

Human nature is often dissected interestingly in public advertisements. For instance, in one following the question, "What would you do if you found a letter from another woman in your husband's pocket?" You read this positive statement:

"The test of a woman's quality is how she conducts herself when she finds that another woman is stealing her husband's love."

That is interesting but not accurate. The test of a woman's quality is when she finds herself married for life to some dull, conceited, uninteresting person in whom no other woman or she either could possibly be interested. It takes a lot of "quality" to go through with that life program.

It is annoying, of course, to find a letter from another lady in your husband's pocket, especially if you are looking for something more valuable. But most annoying of all, and hard to bear, is a life with no excitement. That is what makes women old at fifty.

The State of New Jersey announces, as it does each year, that only female mosquitoes bite. The male does not bite, and poets like Kipling will tell you in consequence that the female of the species is more deadly than the male. Of course she is, because she has harder work to do and greater responsibility.

The female mosquito produces the eggs and the little mosquitoes. To do this she must have blood, good food. If she doesn't bite, she can't have it.

More important than the sex of the biting mosquito is the announcement that New Jersey will try to get rid of mosquitoes, if the citizens will each contribute twenty-five cents. Human foolishness is shown in the way that we fight mosquitoes. New Jersey fights them one year, kills nearly all of them. Neighboring States do nothing, and the next year New Jersey gets all her mosquitoes back from the other States.

If the United States would, once and for all, do away with mosquitoes, waging the war on a national basis at the same time building by way of drainage the much-needed canals, malaria, yellow fever and vile discomfort could be abolished.

The Senate votes to investigate the news print paper industry. It would be a good idea, while interested in paper, to look into certain legislation passed by the Canadians.

Those gentlemen will not allow Americans to import wood from Canada and make it into paper, even when the Americans own the woods. They say that the manufacturing must be done in Canada, in order to give employment to Canadian labor.

Perhaps the government of the United States can find some way, by a friendly arrangement with Canada, to give the American workers a chance.
